Bucknell Honors W&M Law Dean

Times-Dispatch Staff
WILLIAMSBURG — James P. Whyte, Jr. dean of the MarshallWythe School of Law at the College of William and Mary, was given an award Saturday by Bucknell University for "meritorious achievement."

The award to Whyte, a member of the Bucknell class of 1943, was for his "practical vision" in legal education and his abilities as a labor-management arbitrator and specialist in constitutional and criminal law.

Whyte earned his law degree from the University of Colorado and has been a member of the W&M law school faculty for 16 years and dean since 1970.
