Reunion Weekend offers all alumni a chance to celebrate the common bond they share. Members of Milestone Reunion Classes are asked to ensure a bright future for Marshall-Wythe through class gifts. Volunteer leaders and their committees volunteer their time to plan the weekend's festivities, drum up enthusiasm among their classmates and set a class gift goal in celebration of the milestone anniversary of their law school graduation.

Reunion giving is an essential part of the Law School's fund-raising program. Class Gifts are vital to maintaining and improving the quality of legal education here. Members of reunion classes are asked to participate in their class gift by making a multi-year pledge to the Annual Fund. Participation is an important part of the gift.
With every letter from your Reunion Committee, we hope to rekindle happy memories of your law school years. Please join us to celebrate our shared past & to raise a toast to Marshall-Wythe's future. Immediately following Saturday night's Student-Alumni Reception, each Milestone Reunion Class will gather over dinner to celebrate the special anniversary of their law school graduation. Alumni who are not celebrating milestone reunions are invited to attend the Class Party of their choice.

ALL CLASS PARTIES TAKE PLACE AT THE RADISSON FORT MAGRUDER INN.
