LEWIS B. PULLER

Lewis Puller, Marshall-Wythe class of 1974, is the recent recipient of the Pulitzer Prize for his autobiography, FORTUNATE SON. Presently the senior attorney in the Office of the General Counsel at the Department of Defense, Mr. Puller has also served as an attorney with the Veterans Administration, was a member of President Ford's Clemency Board, became the National Service Director of the Paralyzed Veterans of America, and in 1978, was the Democratic candidate for Virginia's First Congressional District.

The George Wythe and John Marshall Awards

These awards have been made possible through the generosity of Robert Friend Boyd '52 (law) and Sara Miller Boyd '55. The Wythe and Marshall Awards are intended to recognize exceptional character, leadership and selfless service to the Law School Community.

The Wythe Award is made to a member of the law school student body. The Marshall Award is made to a member of the faculty or staff of the Law School.

The Lawrence W. I'Anson Award

The Lawrence W. I'Anson Award is presented annually to a member of each graduating class who in the judgment of the law school faculty has shown evidence of great promise through scholarship, character, and leadership. The award, supported by an endowment given by the Beazley Foundation of Portsmouth, Virginia, is given in honor of the late Lawrence W. I'Anson of Portsmouth, Virginia, former Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Virginia and first President of the Board of Directors of the National Center for State Courts.

Virginia Trial Lawyers Award

This award, given annually by the Virginia Trial Lawyers Association, recognizes a graduating student who has excelled in demonstrating the skills of trial advocacy.

Krucho and Fries Award

The generosity of the Baltimore-based firm Krucho and Fries has made possible the annual recognition of a graduating student who has excelled in labor law and employment relations. The award is made upon the joint recommendation of faculty members who teach in this area of specialty.

The Citizen-Lawyer Award

This is the first presentation of the William and Mary Law School Association award honoring an alumnus/a whose distinguished legal career and generous community service exemplify the ideal citizen-lawyer. Nominations are solicited from the entire alumni body and reviewed by the Board of Directors.

Order of the Coif

The Order of the Coif is a national scholastic honor society in law. Its purpose is "To foster a spirit of careful study and to mark in a fitting manner those who have attained a high grade of scholarship" in the study of law. The English Order of the Coif was the most ancient and one of the most honored institutions of the common law. Its origins possibly antedated the Norman Conquest. The American Order of the Coif was founded in 1912. The Marshall-Wythe School of Law was granted a Charter in the Order of the Coif in 1981. Membership in the Order of the Coif is the highest academic honor a law student may achieve. It is equivalent to membership in Phi Beta Kappa for undergraduates, recognizing the scholastic achievement of students selected from the upper ten percent of their class.
