

1990

Book Review of Washington Information Directory

James S. Heller

William & Mary Law School, heller@wm.edu

Repository Citation

Heller, James S., "Book Review of Washington Information Directory" (1990). Library Staff Publications. Paper 41.
<http://scholarship.law.wm.edu/libpubs/41>

Copyright c 1990 by the authors. This article is brought to you by the William & Mary Law School Scholarship Repository.
<http://scholarship.law.wm.edu/libpubs>

702. Washington Information Directory 1989-90. Washington, D.C., Congressional Quarterly, 1989. 1040p. index. $59.95. F192.3.W33. 975.3'0025. LC 75-646321. ISBN 0-87187-505-5. ISSN 0887-8064.

This work is one of Congressional Quarterly's many useful reference publications. Arranged by subject, the directory provides ready access to information on federal executive branch offices and departments, congressional committees and subcommittees, and nonprofit and special interest organizations with headquarters or regional offices in Washington, D.C. Each entry includes the name, address, and telephone number of the organization; the organization's director or other appropriate contact person; and a description of the organization's work. Also included are public information and press telephone numbers, locator numbers, information on foreign embassies, state and local government officials, labor unions, and federal regional offices.

Published in the summer of 1989, the information in this edition is current as of late Spring 1989. Although Federal Yellow Book (see ARBA 88, entry 721) and Congressional Yellow Book (see ARBA 88, entry 717) provide more comprehensive information on the federal executive and legislative branches, the Washington Information Directory offers at a bargain price a wealth of valuable information on both the public and private sectors. As such, it is recommended for most libraries.

—JAMES S. HELLER