Added Enforcement Efforts--

The Administration's request for added enforcement personnel beginning July 1, 1961, was granted by the Congress in Pub. Law No. 87-159. Included were funds permitting employment of some 3365 additional employees, many of whom are revenue agents.

In the light of this stepped-up enforcement program it is important to review current procedures and policies in the audit, conference, appellate and enforcement areas. This review will be made during the Morning Session by the Internal Revenue Regional Commissioner, Ernest H. Vaughan, of the Cincinnati Region; the Director of the Appellate Division, Henry J. Donnelly of the National Office in Washington; and, the United States Attorney for the Eastern District of Virginia, Hon. C. V. Spratley, Jr.

The Tax Court of the United States--

Some current problems, policies and prospects will be discussed at the Luncheon Session by Hon. Norman O. Tietjens, Chief Judge of the Tax Court.

Revenue Rulings--

The highlights and implications of the 1961 rulings program--including areas of no rulings, revocations, modifications, and notices of reconsideration will be discussed during the Afternoon Session by Kenneth H. Liles of Sutherland, Asbill and Brennan, Washington and Atlanta.

Legislation - 1961 and the outlook for 1962.

Significant features of the 1961 enactments and some factors for speculation regarding 1962, will be discussed during the Afternoon Session by Eugene F. Bogan of Sharp and Bogan, Washington, D. C.
