MESSAGE FROM THE DEAN

Dear Alumni and Friends,

This annual report covers 1997-98. Paul Marcus was dean, and the Law School had a very good year indeed.

The format of the report differs somewhat from the approach taken in the past. The report comes in a size and shape designed to fit on your bookshelf, if you'd like to keep it as a ready source of data about the Law School.

Our goal was to pack a lot of interesting and important facts about Marshall-Wythe into a relatively few pages. We do hope that you enjoy the result. It clearly is a "work in progress" for future years, and your thoughts about how future editions ought to evolve would be very welcome. In particular, we would like to hear if some sorts of information missing in the 1997-98 annual report ought to be included in next year's report.

Cordially,

A handwritten signature in cursive script, which appears to read "Taylor". The signature is written in dark ink and is positioned below the word "Cordially,".
