THE WILLIAM & MARY PROPERTY RIGHTS PROJECT

The William & Mary Property Rights Project has two primary goals. First, it encourages legal scholarship on the role that property rights play in society. Second, it facilitates the exchange of ideas between the academy and the practicing property rights bar. In addition to awarding the Brigham-Kanner Property Rights Prize and hosting an annual conference, the Project develops web-based materials that serve its ends.

INSTITUTE OF BILL OF RIGHTS LAW

The Institute of Bill of Rights Law of William & Mary Law School contributes to the ongoing national dialog about issues relating to the Constitution and the Bill of Rights through programs and events, such as the annual Supreme Court Preview conference. For more information on its programs, symposia, and scholarly endeavors, please visit law.wm.edu/ibrll.

THE SIXTH ANNUAL
BRIGHAM-KANNER PROPERTY RIGHTS CONFERENCE
AND PRESENTATION OF THE 2009 BRIGHAM-KANNER PRIZE TO
RICHARD E. PIPES
OCTOBER 16 - 17, 2009

Professor Richard E. Pipes is the 2009 recipient of the Brigham-Kanner Property Rights Prize. He is the Frank B. Baird, Jr., Professor of History, Emeritus, at Harvard University. Among his appointments, he served as Director of Harvard University’s Russian Research Center from 1968-1973, as Chairman of the CIA’s “Team B” to review Strategic Intelligence Estimates in 1976, and as Director of East European and Soviet Affairs in President Ronald Regan’s National Security Council from 1981-1982.

Professor Pipes’s books include Formation of the Soviet Union (1954, 1964, 1998), Struve, 2 vols. (1970, 1980), Russia under the Old Regime (1974), The Russian Revolution (1990), Russia under the Bolshevik Regime (1994), Property and Freedom (1999), Communism: A History (2001), Vixi: The Memoirs of a Non-Belonger (2003), and Conservatism and its Critics (2006).

Professor Pipes was the 2007 recipient of the National Humanities Medal.

The Brigham-Kanner Property Rights Conference and Brigham-Kanner Property Rights Prize are named in recognition of Toby Prince Brigham and Gideon Kanner for their lifetime contributions to private property rights, their efforts to advance the constitutional protection of property, and their accomplishments in preserving the important role that private property plays in protecting individual and civil rights.

Mr. Brigham is an attorney who has specialized in eminent domain and property rights law for more than 40 years and is a founding partner of Brigham Moore, LLP, in Florida. Professor Kanner is professor of law emeritus at the Loyola Law School Los Angeles and is currently of counsel at Manatt, Phelps & Phillips, LLP, in California.

The Brigham-Kanner Prize has previously been awarded to Professor Frank I. Michelman, Harvard Law School (2004), Professor Richard A. Epstein, University of Chicago Law School (2005), Professor James W. Ely, Jr., Vanderbilt Law School (2006), Professor Margaret Jane Radin, University of Michigan Law School (2007), and Professor Robert C. Ellickson, Yale Law School (2008).
