Law Students Plan Memorial For Cox

Pending administrative approval, law students established the "Dean Cox Memorial Fund" at an informal meeting Monday afternoon, presided over by Donald Taylor, chancellor of the Wythe Law club. The fund now totals approximately $40. Supporters of the fund hope that before college opens in September, the fund will total $5,000.

The students agreed that the first objective of the fund should be for a suitable portrait of William and Mary's late Dean of Jurisprudence, to be placed in the College Library. Robert H. Land, librarian, has estimated the cost to be approximately $500.

Donald Taylor plans to discuss the project with President John E. Pomfret, and it is believed that the fund will receive official sanction. Members of the Wythe Law club have pledged their immediate
