MESSAGE FROM THE DEAN

Dear Graduates and Friends,

This annual report covers 1998-99. Last May, a powerful group of 3Ls left us for judicial clerkships and jobs all over the country. A large class of equally impressive 1Ls was recruited, arriving in mid-August. The faculty taught and wrote in its usual distinguished fashion, with involvement as well in many other activities important to legal education, the bench and bar.

Alumni Reunions last April drew the largest group of graduates and family ever. People had a great time seeing old friends and renewing ties to the Law School and Williamsburg. The Law School's graduates also intensified their support of Marshall-Wythe on all scores — for instance, advice and encouragement, help with student placement and recruiting, and dollars to sustain the school's progress as state support declines.

When you have a spare moment, check the school's new website for alumni at <http://law.wm.edu/alumni>. Once you've taken a look, do let us know how best to improve it.

Cordially,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read "Taylor". The signature is written in a cursive, flowing style.
