An Invitation

to Recruit William & Mary Law Students and Graduates

Hiring attorneys is one of the most important investments you make.

We invite you to take a close look at our law students and graduates. Their skill level, professionalism, and enthusiasm for the law will impress you.

William & Mary lawyers begin their legal education with distinguished credentials. They gain practical, hands-on experience in an innovative, two-year Legal Skills Program, and enhance their academic and professional backgrounds by completing externships in actual legal settings.

A Law School Rich in History

In 1779, William & Mary became the first academic institution in the country to teach law in a university setting. Legal training began at the College under the direction of George Wythe, a renowned legal scholar, lawyer and mentor to Thomas Jefferson. John Marshall, who had a seminal impact on U.S. history as Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, was among Wythe's first students. With such august origins, the Law School takes seriously its obligation to produce graduates who are not only wise counselors and powerful advocates but also honorable human beings and good citizens.

The design of the College of William & Mary's Temple Seal is attributed to George Wythe (1726-1806), William & Mary's - and the nation's - first professor of law. On the original seal, an abbreviation, "JURISP.," appeared on the far right column of the ancient Temple Minerva and represented jurisprudence, one of the College's original four core disciplines.

William & Mary Law Students Offer...

OUTSTANDING CREDENTIALS

We share the company of a select group of law schools based on combined LSAT scores and GPAs of their student bodies, and employers around the world hire our students:

- The median GPA for the Class of 2011 is 3.64 and the median LSAT score is 164 (90th percentile). The Law School selected these students from more than 4,500 applicants from 50 states, the District of Columbia, and 53 other countries.
- During 2008, nearly 75 percent of the law firms in the National Law Journal 250, Legal Times 100, The Am Law 100, and The Lawyer Global 100 actively recruited our students.
- More than 3,100 law firms, government agencies, public interest organizations, courts, and businesses visited campus, participated in off-campus interview programs, or solicited resumes from our students and graduates.

DIVERSE BACKGROUNDS

Students come to William & Mary with a breadth of viewpoints and a wealth of accomplishments:

- Our students represent 47 states, the District of Columbia, and 11 other countries.
- They earned undergraduate degrees from 242 institutions.
- More than 40 percent have pre-law school professional experience.

EXCEPTIONAL PROFESSIONAL SKILLS

Our Legal Skills Program is a required, comprehensive, two-year course of study which:

- Earned the ABA's E. Smythe Gambrell Professionalism Award.
- Garnered national recognition in The Wall Street Journal, the ABA Journal, and The Professional Lawyer.
- Simulates law practice by grouping students into 16-member law offices led by a faculty senior partner.
- Teaches legal research and writing and client representation within the context of simulated cases.
- Educates students in the full range of lawyering skills such as counseling clients, interviewing witnesses, and handling pretrial, trial, and appellate work.
- Provides experience in resolving difficult ethical issues that arise in practice.
- Trains students to use state-of-the-art technology so they can practice in high-tech venues.

Students gain meaningful practical experience through our Clinics and Externships by:

- Representing clients in Appellate Litigation, Domestic Violence, Federal Tax, Innocence Project, Legal Aid, Special Education Advocacy, and Veterans' Benefits clinics, often appearing in court and before administrative tribunals using their third-year practice certification and under the supervision of licensed attorneys.
- Working for judges, law firms, prosecutors, public defenders, government agencies, civil legal service providers, corporations, and private nonprofit organizations.

BROAD GEOGRAPHIC INTERESTS

William & Mary students go on to live and work around the world and are leaders in private practice, the judiciary, business, education, public interest organizations, and government:

- Approximately 70 percent of recent graduates work outside Virginia, in 41 states, the District of Columbia, and 4 other countries.
- Alumni are located in all 50 states, the District of Columbia, and 39 other countries.

SIGNIFICANT CO-CURRICULAR ACCOMPLISHMENTS

Four student-edited journals enhance students' research, writing, analytical, and managerial skills. In a recent study:

- The William and Mary Law Review ranked as the 20th most-cited journal in an evaluation of more than 1,000 U.S. and selected non-U.S. legal periodicals.
- The William & Mary Bill of Rights Journal ranked as the 3rd most-cited constitutional law journal.
