WILLIAMSBURG — North
Darrell of New York, president of the American Law Institute since 1981, has been named the first recipient of the Marshall Wythe School of Law Medal.
Darrell will receive the medal during a commencement cere mony at the College of Wil liams and Mary June 11.
The bronze medal was con ceived by the president as a leader of the legal profession in the country and abroad. It showcased the work of George Wythe, who was professor at the col lege, and John Marshall, chief justice of the Supreme Court, and one of Wythe's students.

Although the law school about the campus now enrolls 300 students, the law faculty has several additional records this term. The special medal will be presented to the John Mar shall House in Richmond. The award will be presented at the fifteenth anniversary of the Presidential Constitution of Virginia Annu
pale (PVA) at the James Towne House in Williams burg May 18. The PVA's addres s to the Marshall House.

Dean Joseph Curtis of the law college said that because of the special significance of the Med al, the event will be a high point in the college's distin guished law program and the special medal was approved.
