DAVID A. STRAUSS

David A. Strauss is the Harry N. Wyatt Professor of Law at the University of Chicago. He graduated from Harvard College summa cum laude and then spent two years at Magdalen College, Oxford, on a Marshall Scholarship, receiving a B.Phil. in Politics from Oxford. In 1978, he graduated magna cum laude from Harvard Law School, where he was the developments editor of the law review. Before joining the Chicago faculty in 1985, he worked as an Attorney-Advisor in the Office of Legal Counsel of the U.S. Department of Justice and as an Assistant to the Solicitor General of the United States. He has argued eighteen cases before the United States Supreme Court.

In 1990, Professor Strauss was special counsel to the Senate Judiciary Committee in connection with the nomination of David Souter to the Supreme Court. He has served as a member of the Board of Governors of the Chicago Council of Lawyers and is currently chair of the Board of Trustees of the Laboratory Schools. Mr. Strauss is, with Geoffrey Stone and Dennis Hutchinson, editor of the Supreme Court Review. He has published articles on a variety of subjects, principally in constitutional law. He is a fellow of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences.

The Cutler Lecture

The Cutler Lecture series was established in 1927 by James Goold Cutler of Rochester, New York, to provide an annual lecture at William & Mary by “an outstanding authority on the Constitution of the United States.” The original series of 16 lectures ran from 1928 to 1944. After a period of dormancy, the Cutler lectures were revived in 1980/81 under the auspices of the Law School, with each lecture published in the WILLIAM AND MARY LAW REVIEW.
