ABOUT THE AUTHORS

In addition to Fact-Finding Without Facts, Nancy Combs is the author of Guilty Pleas in International Criminal Law (Stanford, 2007). She is among the expert participants in the International Expert Framework, a project to develop a model code for international criminal procedure (www.icp-ef.org).

In addition to Jim Crow Moves North, Davison M. Douglas is the author or editor of six other books, including Redefining Equality (Oxford, 1998), and Reading, Writing and Race: The Desegregation of the Charlotte Schools (UNC, 1995).

The Relationship Rights of Children is the third book by James G. Dwyer. His earlier works include Vouchers Within Reason (2002) and Religious Schools v. Children's Rights (1998, paperback ed. 2001), both published by Cornell.

Michael Stein, co-author, with Gerard Quinn et al., of The United Nations Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities, was among the few American members of the Ad Hoc Committee that drafted and negotiated the treaty.

Speech Out of Doors is the first book by Timothy Zick. A member of the William & Mary faculty since 2008, he also has written articles on a variety of constitutional issues, with a special focus on free speech and federalism.
