MESSAGE FROM THE DEAN

Dear Graduates and Friends:

At the heart of each Annual Report are the names and faces of those of you most involved with the life of Marshall-Wythe in 2002-03.

Included, too, are facts and figures that, taken together, describe a thriving law school.

You'll see an illustration of Marshall-Wythe's vigor in the pages describing our innovative, award-winning Legal Skills Program. There is also an account of student organizations, focusing on the Black Law Students Association, the Public Service Fund, and the Student Bar Association. You'll get a glimpse of our faculty's endeavors. These men and women teach with real passion. Many also devote countless hours of service to the profession and to the community. There is a story, too, about the recipient of the 2003 Citizen-Lawyer Award, Sharon E. Pandak '78, a graduate whose work has made a significant contribution to the public good.

Marshall-Wythe is vibrantly alive and well. It will continue to move forward with your encouragement and help.

Cordially,
