Students with Distinguished Credentials

*Median LSAT: Top 7-8%  *Median GPA: 3.4

William and Mary shares the company of a select group of law schools nationwide. Our Classes of 1996 and 1997 offer a median LSAT score in the 92nd-93rd percentile and a median undergraduate grade point average of 3.4. Fewer than 25 law schools in the country—only a few of which, like William and Mary, are public institutions—typically enjoy comparable medians.

Chosen from over 6,800 applicants, the 350 members of the Classes of 1996 and 1997 demonstrate remarkable achievements in addition to impressive statistics. Approximately 7% have advanced degrees. Almost half had full-time professional experience before entering law school.

Students with a National Orientation

*Represent 40 states and 171 schools  *Over 60% work outside Virginia

William and Mary students represent 40 states and 171 undergraduate institutions. Over 60 percent of second- and third-year students traditionally work outside Virginia. Our two most recent graduating classes accepted positions in 39 states in all regions of the country. One-quarter of 1994 graduates are serving as judicial clerks.

Over 1,300 employers from all 50 states and the District of Columbia contacted us in 1994 to recruit our students.

Students with Exceptional Professional Skills

*Nationally acclaimed Legal Skills Program  *Courtroom 21

William and Mary's innovative Legal Skills program won the inaugural American Bar Association national Gambrell Award for the teaching of professionalism. The Wall Street Journal, Lawyer Hiring & Training Report, Of Counsel, The ABA Journal, and The Professional Lawyer have featured this nine-credit, two-year required program.
