The St. George Tucker Lecture Series was established in 1996 to recognize annually the scholarly achievements of a senior member of the William & Mary Law School Faculty.
Professor Meese graduated first in his class with high honors in Ancient Greek from the College of William & Mary, where he also earned a secondary concentration in Economics. He then attended the University of Chicago Law School from which he graduated with honors, served as a Comment Editor on the Law Review and was elected to Order of the Coif. After law school he clerked for Judge Frank H. Easterbrook of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit and Justice Antonin Scalia of the U.S. Supreme Court. He was admitted to the Virginia Bar and practiced law at Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher and Flom in Washington, D.C.

Professor Meese joined the William & Mary faculty in 1995 and was a Visiting Professor of Law at the University of Virginia in the 2001-2002 academic year. He is the 2012-2013 Cabell Research Professor of Law.
