MESSAGE FROM THE DEAN

Dear Graduates and Friends:

Over the course of its 226 years, William & Mary Law School has traveled a long and sometimes perilous road. It is thriving now. Your interest in how the school is faring and your willingness to share some of your worldly wealth with it have been crucial. Do stay interested in Marshall-Wythe's health and happiness. The school will be unstoppable with help from each of us.

I hope you enjoy looking at the snapshot of Law School life in this Annual Report.

Cordially,

A handwritten signature in cursive script, which appears to read "Taylor".

W. Taylor Reveley III
Dean and Professor of Law
