VIVIAN HAMILTON

Vivian Hamilton joined the Law School in 2008.

She is a cum laude graduate of Harvard Law School and earned her B.A. in History from Yale College. She clerked for the Hon. Gladys Kessler of the U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia. After clerking, she worked as a litigator in the D.C. office of Steptoe & Johnson LLP, then at the D.C. Legal Aid Society.

She has previously served on the faculties of American University's Washington College of Law, where she was Director of the Women & the Law Clinic, and West Virginia University School of Law. She serves on the Executive Committee of the AALS Section on Family and Juvenile Law and on the Board of Directors of the ACLU-VA.

THE BLACKSTONE LECTURE SERIES

The Blackstone Lecture Series was established in 1996 to recognize the scholarly achievements of younger members of the William & Mary Law School faculty. The series has been made possible through the generosity of Law School alumni.
