Non-Visiting Employers

We will be happy to notify students of opportunities with employers unable to interview on campus. Last fall, over 400 nonvisiting employers from 40 states solicited resumes from our students. Resumes will be collected and sent in one package by the Office of Career Planning and Placement or, if the nonvisiting employer prefers, students will be instructed to submit materials directly to the employer.

Located in historic Williamsburg, the Law School is quite accessible. Williamsburg is served by airports in Richmond and Norfolk, both approximately an hour away, and in Newport News, a half-hour's drive. Washington, D.C. lies 150 miles to the north. Rail service is also available. The town is easily reached by car. On-campus interviewing conveniently can be combined with a business or pleasure trip to the area or with interviewing at one or more nearby law schools.

Williamsburg, home of the world-famous colonial restoration, appears largely as it did in the Eighteenth Century. In addition to the many attractions in and around the restored area, Jamestown, the first permanent English settlement in America, and Yorktown, where American independence was won, are each only fifteen minutes away. Williamsburg offers fine hotels and restaurants, including several that are within walking distance of the Law School.

Marshall-Wythe School of Law is committed to state and federal statutes which prohibit discrimination in employment based on race, color, handicap, religion, age, sex, or ethnic or national origin and which grant job-related rights to veterans. The Law School also encourages employers to make hiring decisions without regard to sexual preference.

When Warren E. Burger '73 LL.D., 15th Chief Justice of the United States, was installed as the 20th chancellor of the College of William and Mary at Charter Day on February 7, 1987, the Society of the Alumni marked the occasion by presenting to the College a chain and badge symbolic of the status of the office of chancellor. Its design incorporates various historical aspects of the chancellor's post at William and Mary, whose first occupant was Henry Compton, bishop of London from 1693 to 1700.
