THE GEORGE WYTHE LECTURE SERIES

George Wythe held the first academic chair of law in America at William and Mary from 1779 until 1790. The annual George Wythe Lecture is named in his honor. Established in 1976, the initial lectures of the series marked the 250th anniversary of the birth of George Wythe. The Wythe lecturers have included:

FRANCIS ALLEN, 1976-77, former Dean of the Michigan School and President of the Association of American Law Schools.

The late PAUL C. REARDON, 1977-78, Justice of the Supreme Judicial Court of Massachusetts.

WILLIAM W. VAN ALSTYNE, 1978-79, Professor at Duke University, former visiting professor at the Marshall-Wythe School of Law.

The late SIR RUPERT CROSS, 1979-80, Vinerian Professor of Law at Oxford University.

The Honorable A. LEON HIGGINBOTHAM, JR., 1980-81, Judge of the United States Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit.

AUBREY DIAMOND, 1981-82, Professor and Director of the Institute of Advanced Legal Studies, University of London.

The Honorable THOMAS F. EAGLETON, 1982-83, United States Senator from Missouri.

KENNETH R. CRISPELL, M.D., 1983-84, University Professor of Medicine and Law, University of Virginia.

LEE C. BOLLINGER, 1984-85, Professor of Law at the University of Michigan.

GUIDO CALABRESI, 1985-86, Dean and Sterling Professor, the Yale Law School.

KENNETH CULP DAVIS, 1986-87, Distinguished Professor of Law at the University of San Diego School of Law.

G. EDWARD WHITE, 1987-88, John B. Minor Professor of Law and History at the University of Virginia.

PAUL D. CARRINGTON, 1988-89, Professor of Law at Duke University.

GRAHAM J. ZELICK, 1989-90, Drapers' Professor of Law at Queen Mary and Westfield College of the University of London.
