Law Guide

Product Of Students

The Law guide, a work for laymen, has been published by the Young Alumni of the University of Virginia, and is designed for use by the law firm of William and Sons.

The book was four years in the making and was first suggested by William B. Swallow, the editor of the American Bar Association's "Lawyers' Guide," which has been followed for many years by students of law school.

The William B. Swallow (in Swallow's words) is the key to the project. Each chapter was written by a lawyer, reviewed by the
