1979

Ford Deplores Fiscal Policy

Wilford Kale

Repository Citation
http://scholarship.law.wm.edu/wspong/35

Copyright c 1979 by the authors. This article is brought to you by the William & Mary Law School Scholarship Repository.
http://scholarship.law.wm.edu/wspong
By Wilford Kage

WILLIAMSBURG - Gerald Ford, at the College of William and Mary, yesterday in a letter to a student, charged that the economic policies of his Carter administration "were one of the main reasons for the persistent unemployment that continues to hamper our economy." He added, "I am certain that this is not the kind of economy we should be working toward in this great nation of ours.

The conference was held in the Great Hall of Wren Building.

Ford Deplores Fiscal Policy
Fiscal Policy Rapped

Continued from First Page

Concurs with His Decision Not to

Richmond Free Press, May 17, 1979

In a speech last week, "We have the same threat, and the same problem. That threat is the Russian threat, and that problem is the need for us to develop the capabilities to meet that threat," he added.

Fiscal Policy Rapped

Continued from First Page

Concurs with His Decision Not to

Richmond Free Press, May 17, 1979

In a speech last week, "We have the same threat, and the same problem. That threat is the Russian threat, and that problem is the need for us to develop the capabilities to meet that threat," he added.