General topic

- Trial Panel
  - What are the special challenges of a capital murder trial?
- Appellate Panel
  - What are the differences of the appellate process for a case with a death sentence?
- Policy Panel
  - Should we continue imposing the death penalty and if so, for what crimes?
Release for Recording of Lecture or Presentation

I permit the William & Mary Law School to audio and video record my presentation at William & Mary and to use the resulting recordings for law school purposes, such as (1) for replay by law school personnel, including students; (2) for placement on William & Mary websites, or websites authorized by William & Mary such as iTunes, whether for "streaming" or for downloading, for personal use; (3) for broadcast by news media for news purposes; and (4) for use in Law School promotional materials.

I retain the copyright in any copyrightable works of authorship that form all or part of my presentation.

I do not require the opportunity to inspect or approve the finished product and any written copy used in connection with it, before its use by the Law School as described above.

I have read this release, understand it, and intend it to be a binding instrument.
