WILLIAM AND MARY LAW SCHOOL ASSOCIATION ANNUAL MEETING

The Annual Meeting of the William and Mary Law School Association is scheduled for Saturday, May 4, 1963. In addition to the Business Meeting there is a luncheon with President Paschall attending and special events--an address by United States Senator Gordon Allott--and a reception. The latter two events are in conjunction with the Williamsburg Bar Association and the Student Bar Association in celebration of Law Day. All appearances suggest that this meeting will be the biggest and best yet held by the Association. We look forward to seeing you.

FACULTY SERVICES RENDERED

Acting Dean Joseph Curtis participated as Lecturer in the First Annual Tax School sponsored by the Joint Committee on Continuing Legal Education of the Virginia State Bar and the Virginia State Bar Association, speaking at Harrisonburg on March 2, Alexandria on March 8, and Norfolk on March 9. The School is a one-day program conducted for attorneys in active practice.

Dean Emeritus Dudley W. Woodbridge is serving on a committee chairmand by the Hon. J. C. Hutcheson for the purpose of making recommendations to the Virginia Advisory Legislative Council as to the desirability of the Commonwealth's adopting the Uniform Commercial Code with or without deletions, modifications or additions.

Professor James P. Whyte served as Arbitrator in a labor dispute involving the Teamsters and Trucking industries; awards published in 62-3 ARB p 9060, 63-1 ARB p 8054.

Professor Thomas C. Atkeson led a seminar session at the Williamsburg Lodge on March 11, of the Graduate School of the United States Department of Agriculture for Federal Executives.

Dr. William F. Swindler will serve as delegate for the University of Nebraska College of Law and Mr. Curtis as a delegate for this Law School at the ceremonies in dedication of the new law building at Duke University in April.

Professor Arthur W. Phelps, as a delegate, represented the College of William and Mary at the dedication of the new law building of the Vanderbilt University School of Law on April 4, 5, and 6. The ceremonies centered around a series of lectures on the theme "Stability and Change Through Law." Leading law teachers, lawyers, political scientists, business men, economists and others engaged in research developed the topics - The Forces of Change, Social Adjustment, Resources and Responsibility, and the Law's Response to the Demand for Both Stability and Change. These lectures, which will be printed, should prove of great interest to anyone interested in law and its implications for modern society. Dean Wade concluded the conference with a very able paper describing and evaluating the main trends in legal education.

LAW SCHOOL INCLUDED IN SUMMER INTERN PROGRAM - INTERNAL REVENUE SERVICE

The Law School has again been included among the seventeen law schools selected to participate in the summer internship program of the Chief Counsel's Office of the Internal Revenue Service by nominating a student of superior qualifications for the program. Approval has been given by the Chief Counsel's Office to the School's nominee, Mr. Joseph C. Wool, Jr.

A FRIEND OF THE LAW SCHOOL

The Law School regrets to note the death on February 18, 1963, of the Hon. Oscar L. Shewmake, a long and loyal friend of the Law School. He was a 1903 Bachelor of Arts graduate and a Phi Beta Kappa. His law degree was obtained from the University of Virginia in 1909. His service to the College included that of Professor of Government and Citizenship; and, as member of the Board of Visitors in 1919-21, and 1941 through 1952, as Vice Rector (1947-49) and as Rector (1950-52). He took an active part in the re-establishment of the Law School in the twenties, and taught courses in Law and Government during its first years. He was a life member of the Virginia State Bar Association and a senior partner in the law firm of Shewmake, Gary, Goddin and Blackwell of Richmond.

HAVE YOU PAID YOUR DUES?

The William and Mary Law Review is now at the printer's, and all Association members who have paid their dues will be sent a copy when it comes off the press. The Review will contain articles, notes and comments of current interest. You will not want to miss it. Make your check payable to the William and Mary Law School Association and send it to Professor James P. Whyte, Treasurer.

ERRATUM

For those maintaining a file of the Law School News Letter, attention is called to an error in numbering the February 1963 Letter. The Volume number was inadvertently shown as 5. It should have been 6.
