Law Seminar Students to Hear Ex-Sen. Spong

Times-Dispatch Staff Report

HAMPTON-SYMPHONY - Former U.S. Sen. William B. Spong, Dean of the College of William and Mary law school, will be the keynote speaker at a seminar for prospective law students at Hampton-Sympoty Thursday.

The seminar, sponsored by the law school’s student organization, the Hampton-Sympoty legal forum, will be held at 8 a.m. in the college’s Peabody Center.

The seminar will feature prominent Hampton-Sympoty alumni from the legal field. Also scheduled to speak will be three former Hampton-Sympoty students: Judge Joe J. Eggleston, Circuit Court Judge for the 5th Judicial District; Judge John L. Spong, Circuit Court Judge for the 5th Judicial District; and Judge John L. Spong, Circuit Court Judge for the 5th Judicial District.

The seminar will begin with an overview of the law schools in Hampton-Sympoty and an introduction to the law schools in the state. The presentation will be followed by a panel discussion featuring alumni from the law schools.

The event will be open to all interested students and faculty. The seminar will conclude with a reception and a chance to network with alumni and current law students.

The seminar is sponsored by the Hampton-Sympoty Legal Forum, a student organization dedicated to promoting interest in the law and providing resources to students considering law as a career.
