The Cutler Lecture

The Cutler Lecture series was established in 1927 by James Gould Cutler of Rochester, New York, to provide an annual lecture at the College of William and Mary by "an outstanding authority on the Constitution of the United States." The original series of 16 lectures ran from 1928 to 1944. After a period of dormancy, the Cutler lectures were revived in the 1980-81 academic year under the auspices of the Law School, with each lecture published in the William & Mary Law Review.
