NEWSWORTHY NEWS

CONGRATULATIONS to this year's 1L Honor Council Associate Justices: Cara Boekeloo, Andrew Gordon, Stephen Murray, Jarrette Pittman and Rebecca Sandler.

Please join Patty Roberts in CONGRATULATING Kristin Young, their Court Clerk and Legal Skills Assistant, on the exciting next step she'll take in her career. Kristin will be leaving the Law School to become the Community Engagement Coordinator for the City of Charlotte and Mecklenburg County. Please join Professor Roberts and the law school community at 1:15 p.m. on October 17 for cake in the North Wing, outside the office of Alumni Affairs to send Kristin off with our good wishes.

CONGRATULATIONS to Charles Crimmins – the new undergraduate position and Interim Senator - Please join the SBA in congratulating Charles who has been asked by the Student Assembly to be the Graduate Ombudsman. Previously, Charles served in the Student Assembly as one of our Senators. He did such a fine job in the Senate that the SA President, Valerie Hopkins, appointed him to serve as one of her advisors. In order to fill the vacancy in the Senate, the SBA accepted Valerie's suggestion to appoint Ryan Ruzic. Ryan was a finalist in the search for new SA Vice President. After serving as both a senator and student body president at the University of Illinois, Ryan has a great deal of experience with student government and the SBA felt he would be an excellent candidate to fill the interim position. We are very thrilled to have Ryan and Charles advocating on our behalf in the Student Assembly!

VOTER REGISTRATION DEADLINE!! REMINDER: The deadline to submit a Virginia Voter Registration Application is this Monday, October 6 at 5:00 p.m. (All applications must be received or postmarked by October 6. NOTE: The City of Williamsburg Voter Registrar's office closes at 4:30 p.m.)

(1) To print out an Application Form visit the Virginia State Board of Elections website at http://www.sbe.virginia.gov/cms/Voter Information/Registering to Vote/Index.html

(2) If you have already applied or updated your registration information, and have NOT already received a new voter ID card in the mail, CONFIRM your Registration Status at <https://www.voterinfo.sbe.virginia.gov/PublicSite/Public/FT2/PublicLookup.aspx?Link=Registration&AspxAutoDetectCookieSupport=1>

(3) PARTICULARLY if you registered via the DMV, resubmit an application if you CANNOT CONFIRM your Registration Status before October 6. (Duplicate applications will not impact your registration.)

MANAGING STRESS - Many law schools around the country have established discussion groups (whether one-time or ongoing) on stress management. There is, by the way, big growth in such groups for practicing attorneys as well. The purpose of these gatherings is for participants to get and share information about strategies for responding to the stressful situations. This sort of information can be useful not only in law students' own coping with the law school experience, but can prepare students to understand more fully the way their clients and others may be responding to stressful situations, such as litigation, divorce, employment issues, etc. If you would like to participate in a one-time, one-hour discussion group on stress, please contact Professor Susan Grover at ssgrov@wm.edu. Time and place will depend on schedules of participants.

ABA RE-ACCREDITATION PROCESS BEGINS - Every seven years, each ABA-accredited law school must go through a re-accreditation process. Re-accreditation ensures that our graduates are eligible to take the bar exam anywhere in the United States. The re-accreditation process involves a detailed Self-Study and compilation of data, followed by a site visit by a team of ABA accreditors. William & Mary's site visit team will arrive in October 2009. Between now and then, faculty, administrators, and students will be asked to contribute thoughts and ideas to the Self-Study. You will be hearing more about this throughout the year. The Self-Study Committee is chaired by Professor Barnard and includes Dean Kaplan; Professors Banks, Heller, Heymann, Marcus, Meese, Roberts, and Ward; and students Latoya Asia (3L) and Rob Poggenklass (2L).

PLEASE NOTE - Regarding charitable drives where money is collected. W&M student organizations do a fabulous job supporting countless needy organizations. We applaud and commend you all. But, we also caution you on how you collect donations of money. Please be aware that this is a public building and we can't trust that visitors have the same ethics of our students and staff. Fund drives that collect money in jars or cans or other vessels are great, but these vessels should not be left unattended as they can be subject to theft.

MARK YOUR CALENDAR

LEE NATIONAL DENIM DAY is Friday, October 3. This is a fundraiser to support the Women's Cancer Programs of the EIF (Entertainment Industry Foundation). In conjunction with this important fundraiser, Professor René Bowditch will present a program for Breast Cancer Awareness Month, on Friday, October 10 from Noon – 1:00 in room 133.

From October 1-10, everyone in the building is invited to sign a "helping hand" in MEMORY of someone who lost their courageous battle with cancer, in CELEBRATION of survivors fighting this disease today, and in HONOR of those who support, or who are involved with the care of those who have cancer. These "helping hands" and the “helping hands” that have been signed in years past will be displayed across from the Law Library Circulation Desk.

Everyone is encouraged to wear denim in support of breast cancer awareness on October 3. Please take the informational leaflets, a “pink ribbon” pin, and make a donation (any amount is appreciated) towards breast cancer research to help eradicate this life-threatening disease. The box for donations, a basket of “pink ribbon” pins and the leaflets will also be across from the Circulation desk until October 10.

THE ALTERNATIVE DISPUTE RESOLUTION SOCIETY OF W&M LAW SCHOOL will sponsor a 3-way Negotiation Invitational on Saturday, October 4 (9:30 a.m.-4:00 p.m.), at the Law School. Three Negotiation Teams from Regent School of Law and three from Liberty School of Law will join four Teams from William & Mary Law School in the negotiation of two problems in preparation for the American Bar Association Regional Negotiation Competition in November. The Invitational allows all three schools the opportunity to face competitors from the other law schools and to decide their team composition for the ABA Competition. The Invitational can be observed by any W&M law student who wants to see how the ABA Competition is run or to learn more about the ADR Society and its functions. Please contact Trevor Hall at tshall@wm.edu for more info.

Also, the ADR Society will participate in another Invitational in Richmond, Virginia, on October 25, where teams from William & Mary, Richmond, and Regent Law Schools will square off against each other in Representation in Mediation (Mediation Advocacy) Competition. The teams will be judged on how well the attorney represents his or her client in the mediation process. This will likewise provide outside competition to gain experience and to determine team composition for the Dispute Resolution Section of the American Bar Association's Representation in Mediation Regional Competition in March.

Teams from W&M ADR Society also participated in the ABA's Client Representation Competition in September and will participate in the ABA's Arbitration Regional Competition later this semester.

The purpose of the Alternative Dispute Resolution Society is to create and promote educational and practical opportunities for students in such ADR processes as arbitration, negotiation and mediation; to provide a forum for students to develop skills in those fields; and to introduce the community and students to the growing importance of using cooperative and collaborative alternatives to litigation in resolving disputes.

Lunch will be provided, and you'll get the first chance to meet Pete and Pam Wright, national experts in the field and new adjunct professors at the law school, as well as hear about the spring clinic. RETIRED HIGH-RANKING OFFICERS SPEAK OUT AGAINST USE OF TORTURE AT OCTOBER 6 ROUNDTABLE AT W&M LAW SCHOOL - The Human Rights and National Security Law (HRNSL) Program at William & Mary Law School and Human Rights First are co-sponsoring a roundtable discussion titled "Why Torture Does Not Work: A Military Perspective" on Monday, October 6 at 5:00 p.m. in room 120 at the Law School. The event is free and all are welcome. Marshall-Wythe Foundation Professor of Law Linda A. Malone, director of the HRNSL Program, will moderate the event which features former high-ranking military officers who have spoken out against the use of torture and coercive techniques of interrogation. Participants include Major General Paul D. Eaton, USA (Ret.), who served as Commanding General of the command charged with re-establishing Iraqi Security Forces (2003-04); Major General Fred E. Hayes, USMC (Ret.), chairman of the Combat Veterans of Iwo Jima and a member of the Council on Foreign Relations; and Brigadier General James P. Cullen, USA (Ret.), a former Chief Judge (IMA) of the U.S. Army Court of Appeals.

INTERNATIONAL LAW SOCIETY WILL HOST THIS MONTH'S STUDENT-FACULTY MIXER - Next Tuesday, October 7, 4:30-5:30 p.m., the International Law Society (ILS) will host a student-faculty mixer in the law school lobby. Apart from the chance to meet professors that deal with international issues, this mixer will be joined by several visiting lawyers from Kyrgyzstan as part of their Rotary sponsored trip to learn about the U.S. legal system. Kyrgyzstan, the neighboring "stan" of Kazakhstan (Borat's home country), is in Central Asia and was formerly part of the Soviet Union. It has recently experienced various political turmoil including the ouster of President Akayev in 2005, various constitutional changes as recent as October 2007, dissolution of parliament by the newly elected President Bakiev, and the creation of a new leading party, Ak Jol. This would be an amazing opportunity to meet lawyers from a nation few of us will ever be able to visit, chat with Rotary members about the club activities, interact one-on-one with professors, and to exchange ideas on international law and international issues.

INTERESTED IN CYBERCRIME AND ITS PROSECUTION? Then come join in the discussion with Assistant United States Attorneys Howard Zlotnick and Lisa McKeel from the US Attorney's Office for the Eastern District of Virginia. These experienced prosecutors will be giving a spirited and interesting presentation on cybercrime on October 17 from 10:00-11:30 a.m. in room 119 as part of the Internet Law Course. Please join us! This event is open to the entire school and will last approximately one hour. Come and find out how DOJ is prosecuting a wide array of cybercrimes and discuss the issues with the experts.

So come and join us Tuesday, October 21 in room 133 at 1:00 p.m. There will be free pizza! Any questions, please e-mail lglaw@wm.edu.
