FIFTH ANNUAL BRIGHAM-KANNER
PROPERTY RIGHTS CONFERENCE
OCTOBER 17-18, 2008

The conference is presented by the William & Mary Property Rights Project and the Institute of Bill of Rights Law.

During the conference, Robert C. Ellickson of Yale Law School will receive the 2008 Brigham-Kanner Prize which recognizes outstanding scholarly contributions to the field of property rights. Previous recipients are Frank I. Michelman, Harvard University (2004); Richard A. Epstein, University of Chicago (2005); James W. Ely, Vanderbilt University (2006); and Margaret J. Radin, University of Michigan (2007).

This year's panels include:

- Reflections on Professor Ellickson's Contributions to Property Rights Scholarship
- Norms & Decentralization of Property Rights
- The Role of the Judiciary in the Checks and Balances Affecting Property Rights
- Human Nature & Property Rights
- How Will Global Warming Change the Climate for Property Rights?
- Judicial Rhetoric and Judge-Made Compensability Rules

More information will be posted at www.wm.edu/law/.

CLE credit is available.
