Prosecuting the Crime of Aggression in the International Criminal Court

Håkan Friman

LLM, University of Uppsala, Sweden

Visiting Professor at University College London, Faculty of Laws

Deputy Director-General, Swedish Ministry of Justice, Division for Criminal Cases and International Judicial Cooperation

Former Associate Judge for the Svea Court of Appeals, Stockholm, Sweden

Former Consultant to the ICC Office of the Prosecutor

Tuesday, February 28, 12:50-1:50 p.m.

W&M School of Law, Room 124

In 2010, the International Criminal Court adopted the crime of aggression at the Kampala Review Conference. Mr. Friman will discuss the Kampala Amendments to the ICC Statute, including how the crime of aggression is defined and the ICC's jurisdiction over these cases.
