NEWSWORTHY NOTES

BEST WISHES to Dean Reveley in his new position as Interim President. CONGRATULATIONS to Dean Butler as our new Law School Interim Dean.

WELCOME Professor Nichol who will be teaching a 1-credit mini course in March: "Equal Protection, the Voting Rights Act, and Race-Conscious Districting." This short course will explore the intersection of the Voting Rights Act and the Equal Protection clause of the fourteenth amendment -- focusing on remedial race-based redistricting. The central line of United States Supreme Court decisions it will explore includes Shaw v. Reno (1993), Miller v. Johnson (1995), Bush v. Vera (1996), Hunt v. Crowmarti (2001) and their progeny. The course will consider the challenging tension between the demands of Voting Rights Act enforcement and constitutional compliance. It will also compare the Shaw line of cases with the Court's treatment of affirmative action. The grade will be based on a 10 page paper and class participation. Watch for emails from Dean Jackson regarding registering for this course.

CONGRATULATIONS to Antionette Bishop (2L) – she was a finalist at the GRAMMY Foundation's 10th Annual Entertainment Law Initiative Luncheon and Scholarship Presentation held at the Beverly Hills Hotel. She spoke about her entry, "Illegal P2P File-Sharing On College Campuses – What's The Solution?"

THANK YOU FROM PSF! Many thanks to all who participated in, donated to, and attended the PSF Auction this year! It was a huge success and we all had a lot of fun. We raised more than we did last year and brought in over $21,000 in one night!!!!!!!!!!!! Incredible! Thank you for all your support and we hope everyone had a good time.

The LOAN REPAYMENT ASSISTANCE PROGRAM COMMITTEE (Jayne Barnard, Eric Chason, Judy Conti '94, Jennie Cordis '08, Dave Dalke '93, Rob Kaplan, Sally Kellam, John Levy, Terri Lorincz, and Faye Shealy) is pleased to announce this year's awards from the law school's Loan Repayment Assistance Program.

NEED TO KNOW

Reminder! Flyers advertising Law School events are not to be placed on any Law School wall or door with the following exceptions. On the day of the Law School event, flyers advertising the event may be posted on the front doors to the Law School. And, flyers may be posted in the student lounge (except the wood doors) and on bulletin boards managed by the student organization sponsoring the event. Flyers must be removed after the event.

SOME IMPORTANT INFORMATION REGARDING BAR APPLICATIONS - Many bar applications require submission of the applicant's fingerprints. Beginning immediately, Chris Creech can set up appointments for those students wishing to have their fingerprints done by Campus Police. Appointments, made for the following week, are for the hours of 7:00-8:00 a.m. and 4:00-5:00 p.m. ONLY, Monday through Friday. There is no charge for this. For those taking the Virginia Bar, a Virginia Bar Application fingerprint card can be obtained from Chris as well. Of course, you can also go to any police station to have this done. BE SURE TO TAKE A PHOTO ID WITH YOU FOR THIS APPOINTMENT AND SOMETHING WITH YOUR SOCIAL SECURITY NUMBER ON IT.

Most bar applications require you sign before a notary. Gloria Todd, Chris Creech, and Felicia Burton are notaries and will be glad to help you with this. DO NOT SIGN ANY DOCUMENT THAT NEEDS TO BE NOTARIZED. Wait until you are in front of Gloria or Chris before signing. Have all your documents/forms in order before you come in for notarization. This will greatly speed up the process!

FOR THOSE TAKING THE VIRGINIA BAR EXAM - Please remember to pick up the EDUCATION CERTIFICATE from Chris Creech. A good time to pick this up is when you come in to have her notarize your application. This form must accompany your Virginia Bar Application. The CERTIFICATE OF GRADUATION will be sent by Dean Jackson on May 12. And most importantly, the deadline for the application is May 10. Please feel free to contact Chris should you have any questions.

SBA - VOLUNTEER COUNCIL NEWSLETTER - Looking for a good study break activity? Need service hours to fulfill your VBA Community Servant pledge? Find out about great service opportunities through the Volunteer Council Newsletter. To be added to the listserv, please email Joelle Laszlo at jelasz@wm.edu

SUPPORTERS IN LAW - Did you know that there is a group on campus for supporters of law students? "Supporters In Law" is a way for W&M Law School spouses, significant others, and even children to network and get to know each other while their significant others go through law school. This is an avenue for us to grumble, share our frustrations, and develop long lasting friendships. Join together with other law student supporters to not only survive law school but make it great! Check us out at <http://groups.yahoo.com/group/Supporters-in-Law/>

ADMISSION

FINANCIAL AID – Individual appointments are available for questions on financial aid, FAFSA, lender options, lender terms, loan applications, bar loans, loan consolidation issues, loan repayment, taxes. Appointments may be scheduled with Jennifer Meier, Assistant Director for Student Loans and Graduate Aid, for individual meetings on Wednesday afternoons at the Law School during the weeks of spring semester when classes are held. Please stop by the Admissions Office (rooms 104 and 105) to sign-up in advance for available appointment times. You may contact the Office of Student Financial Aid, 218 Blow Memorial Hall (221-2426) to schedule appointments on other days.

FINANCIAL AID FOR THE 2008-09 ACADEMIC YEAR – Information regarding financial aid for the 2008-09 academic year was sent to all 1Ls and 2Ls via e-mail from Faye Shealy on January 10, 2008. If you did not receive this information or could not open the attachment, please stop by the Admission Office (rooms 104 and 105) to obtain a hard copy or to meet with Dean Shealy regarding questions. The FAFSA is required for need-based financial aid and all education loans. March 1 is the deadline for returning students to file the FAFSA located at fafsa.ed.gov. William & Mary's Title IV Federal School Code is 003705.

HOUSING OPPORTUNITIES – The Admission Office would appreciate hearing from students/staff/faculty who know of apartments and other housing opportunities that will be available for the coming academic year. If you are moving from a desirable location or looking for roommates next year, please e-mail the particulars to lawadm@wm.edu. The information will be disbursed to new admits seeking housing in Williamsburg. Spread the word to contacts in the community with affordable real estate options for students. Thanks for your help!

OLIVER HILL SCHOLARSHIP – The Oliver Hill Scholarship is awarded to a student who is committed to the objectives, goals, and principles of the Black Law Students Association (BLSA) at William & Mary Law School. The recipient must demonstrate a commitment to personal excellence, social justice, and advancing and protecting civil rights of all citizens. Students in good standing at the Law School, who demonstrate financial need, exhibit leadership abilities in the Law School or the community and display a record of public or community service are eligible. Interested students must apply for the scholarship by submitting two copies of the following to the Dean's Office by February 29: resumé, statement (no more than one double-spaced page) that describes how the student meets the criteria and an essay (no more than two double-spaced pages) on the topic "How Oliver Hill's achievements have had an impact on my life?"

The FINNEGAN HENDERSON DIVERSITY SCHOLARSHIP offers financial support to qualified minority first-year law students who have demonstrated a commitment to pursuing a career in IP law. The award recipient will also accept an offer to join the firm as a summer associate in one of their domestic offices (Atlanta, Cambridge, Palo Alto, Reston or Washington). The deadline for applications is February 29, 2008. For more information and an application visit www.finnegan.com.

THE ELLEN SPRING MOORE SCHOLARSHIP is being offered by the Roanoke Chapter of the VA Women Attorney's Association in partnership with Woods Rogers PLC. This scholarship is open to female students currently enrolled in a law school or paralegal program. Preference will be given to applicants with ties to southwest Virginia. For more information and an application, please stop by the Admission Office.

THE ROANOKE BAR ASSOCIATION offers the James N. Kincanon Scholarship to residents of the city or county of Roanoke or the City of Salem, VA, or graduated from a high school in one of these jurisdictions and have at least a 3.0 grade point average in law school. The application deadline is March 31, 2008. For more information and an application, visit www.roanokebar.com.

THE FEDERAL CIRCUIT BAR ASSOCIATION is offering three $10,000 scholarships to law students who show financial need, demonstrate academic promise and service, either in undergraduate studies or in law school. The application deadline is April 30, 2008. For more information visit www.fedcirbar.org and click on “scholarships”.

MILBANK DIVERSITY SCHOLARS PROGRAM – Each year Milbank selects at least two scholars who will receive a salaried summer associate position and a $50,000 scholarship. $15,000 will be distributed during the students’ third year of law school and payment of the remaining $35,000 is contingent upon receipt and acceptance of a Milbank permanent offer, to be paid upon the students’ joining the firm. For more information and an application, please visit www.milbank.com/en/Diversity/. The application deadline is September 1, 2008.

THE ATTORNEY-CPA FOUNDATION will offer 14 scholarships in 2008 in amounts ranging from $1,000 to $250 to students who will be entering their third year of law school and also have obtained a CPA certificate. The application deadline is April 16, 2008. For more information and an application visit www.attorney-cpa.com/foundation

COOLEY GODWARD KRONISH DIVERSITY FELLOWSHIP PROGRAM will award up to $15,000 annually to eight first-year law students. Eligibility includes personal diversity in terms of ethnicity, gender, physical disability and/or sexual orientation. The application deadline for 1L students is March 15, 2008. For more information and an application, please visit www.cooley.com/diversityfellowship.

OFFICE OF CAREER SERVICES

Web Site of the Week - The Fedworld Homepage has links to almost every federal government home page. www.fedworld.gov.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Interested in Patent Law? Plan to take the patent bar exam? 1Ls and 2Ls are eligible to register for the Loyola Patent Law Interview Program, which will take place on July 31-August 1, 2008 in Chicago, at the Chicago Marriott Suites O’Hare. Law students are required to register on line by March 14. There is a non-refundable $50 registration fee that must be paid by credit card at the time of registration. Several William & Mary Law students have landed job opportunities through this event in past years. For more information and to register, go to the Loyola University Chicago Law School’s Web site:

<http://www.patentlawregistration.luc.edu/lawschools/>.

Applying for a Government or Public Interest Summer Job? Funding available through William & Mary may help you get that job! There are several Fellowship Programs that provide stipends of up to $3,600 for students who secure summer internships with employers who are unable to provide funding or can only provide partial funding. The availability of funds through William & Mary enhances your candidacy with employers. There is a one-page handout available on the display racks in OCS that describes William & Mary's various Fellowship Programs for the summer of 2008. Please feel free to include this flier with your resumes and cover letters to government and public service employers. In your cover letter, you may want to indicate that "William & Mary has several public interest [or government] summer funding sources, as detailed on the enclosed sheet." The application process for these fellowships is very competitive, and you must have a written offer of employment in order to apply for funding. 2Ls, PLEASE NOTE THE MESSAGE BELOW ABOUT THE "EARLY DECISION" PROCESS. THE APPLICATION DEADLINE FOR "EARLY DECISION" FUNDING IS FRIDAY, MARCH 21 AT 5:00 P.M.

For 3Ls - Post-Graduate Public Service Fellowships are designed to provide a "bridge" between when you take the bar and when the bar results are announced since many permanent jobs aren't filled until the bar results are published. Students who would like to work during that time for a government agency or public interest organization and have not yet secured post-graduate employment are eligible to apply for this fellowship.

There is no application deadline to apply for post-graduate fellowships however, they will be allocated on a rolling basis beginning March 1. In order to secure funding, students first need to secure an offer for a position in a government agency or public interest organization. For more information and details, please go to "Government and Public Interest" in OCS Resources for Students on Blackboard.

Fall OCI Start Date - Fall 2008 on-campus interviews will begin on Wednesday, August 20, which is several days before the first day of classes for returning students (Monday, August 25). If you plan to participate in the first few days of fall OCI, please plan accordingly.

Summer Job Opportunities for 1Ls and 2Ls - Faculty Summer Research Assistantships - OCS has surveyed the faculty regarding their plans to hire Research Assistants, their areas of research, the hours and weeks expected, and what and when application materials are due. We have compiled the results in a table, which is now posted in OCS Resources for Students on Blackboard under "Faculty Summer RAs." There are over 40 research assistant opportunities available. Some of the application deadlines are soon; others are later in the semester. However, we advise interested students not to wait. Faculty members frequently conclude the process as soon as the right student comes along. The table in OCS Services for Students on Blackboard explains the application procedure and requirements. If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to contact OCS.

U.S. Department of State Careers - Foreign Service Officer Test - Interested in the Foreign Service? Find out more about possible careers as a Foreign Service Officer by visiting the U.S. Department of State Foreign Officer web site at <http://careers.state.gov/officer/register.html>. The deadline to register for the March 2008 Foreign Service Officer Test is February 27.

The Federal Circuit Bar Association invites students to participate in their Horizon Series webcasts. Recent topics have included current issues at various government agencies such as the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office, and the U.S. Merit Systems Protection Board. The next webcast scheduled for March 12 features the International Trade Commission. For more information and registration details, go to www.fedcirbar.org.

SUMMER HOUSING

Looking for summer housing outside Williamsburg? Law students seeking summer housing in the cities where they'll be working are invited to participate in NALP's free online National Apartment Exchange. The site facilitates summer sublets of apartments currently being used by law students in cities across the country who will be in another city for the summer. Just visit www.nalpexchange.org and you can search for summer housing opportunities from all around the country beginning in early February. THE APARTMENT EXCHANGE WILL BE AVAILABLE THROUGH MAY 2008.

Other Summer Housing Options The NALP site listed above is free. Another site that appears to be free is www.craigslist.org. The web site www.sublet.com will, for a fee, give you 90 days of access to listings for sublets available around the country. Before paying the fee, you can see if they have any listings in your target city and what the fee is, which varies depending on the city or region you pick. Another suggestion is to check colleges and universities in your target city, since they often have housing options available to students for the summer.

Check colleges and universities in your target city, since they often have housing options available to students for the summer.

Summer Housing in Atlanta - Emory University offers housing to students working in Atlanta for the summer. See www.emory.edu/sihp/.

Summer Housing in Chicago - The School of the Art Institute of Chicago offers loft-style rooms with private baths and kitchenettes in the heart of the city. The rooms include a full-size refrigerator and stove, private phone line with voice mail, high-speed Internet connection, cable TV, and more. See <http://www.saic.edu/life/housing/index.html#summer>.

Summer Housing in New York City - Furnished apartments are available through NYU School of Law's Summer Living in New York program in Manhattan. For more information, see www.law.nyu.edu/depts/housing.

More Summer Housing in New York City - Educational Housing Services is a not-for-profit organization offering fully furnished rooms in newly renovated residences in prime neighborhoods throughout New York City. There is a student membership fee of $150. For more information, see <http://www.studenthousing.org/summerassociates.htm>.

WRITING COMPETITIONS

Throughout the academic year we receive announcements regarding essay competitions and invitations to submit papers for publication in law reviews and journals. This information is posted on a bulletin board in OCS and in OCS Resources for Students on Blackboard. In addition to the intellectual and often economic benefits of these contests, the competitions are another way for you to demonstrate your legal writing abilities to employers. Because they are often sponsored by bar associations and other professional groups, they also provide excellent networking opportunities. Keep in mind that faculty members are a good source of ideas and guidance if you decide to participate. We have recently posted information regarding the following writing competitions:

The University of California at Los Angeles Law School' Journal of Law and Technology has just announced its 2008 Writing Contest. Students interested must submit an unpublished work (suggested length: 15-20 pages) on any topic related to Law and Technology. The winning paper will earn a prize of $1,000. The deadline for submission is March 3, 2008.

The Federal Circuit Bar Association has announced the 2008 George Hutchinson Writing Competition. Entries to the contest may discuss any topic that lies within the procedure, substance or scope of the jurisdiction of the Federal Circuit Court of Appeals. Students are encouraged to base their entries on papers they prepared for law school courses during the 2007-2008 school year. $3,000 will be awarded to the contest winner. Second and third place cash prizes may also be awarded at the discretion of the judges. Submissions must be postmarked by June 30, 2008.

The American Inns of Court is sponsoring the Warren E. Burger Writing Competition to encourage outstanding scholarship that "promotes the ideals of excellence, civility, ethics and professionalism within the legal profession," the core mission of the American Inns of Court. Law students are invited to submit an original unpublished essay of 10,000 to 25,000 words on a topic of their choice addressing issues of legal excellence, civility ethics and professionalism. The author of the winning submission will receive a cash prize of $5,000 and the winning essay will be published in the South Carolina Law Review. Submissions must be postmarked by June 15, 2008. For more information, contact Ms. Cindy Dennis at cdennis@innsofcourt.org.
