THE HONORABLE ANTONIN SCALIA _____

Justice Scalia was confirmed as an associate justice of the Supreme Court in 1986, having served as a judge with the U.S. Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit from 1982 to 1986. A graduate of Georgetown University and Harvard University School of Law, he began his legal career as an associate in private practice from 1961 to 1967, when he joined the University of Virginia law faculty, where he taught until 1974. From 1971 to 1972, Justice Scalia was also general counsel of the Office of Telecommunications Policy in the Office of the President. He served as chairman of the Administrative Conference of the United States from 1972 to 1974 and from 1974 to 1977 was an assistant attorney general in the U.S. Office of Legal Counsel in the Justice Department.. Justice Scalia also remained active in academic life, as a visiting professor at Georgetown Law Center, Stanford Law School and the University of Chicago, and as a visiting scholar at the American Enterprise Institute.

The George Wythe and John Marshall Awards

These awards have been made possible through the generosity of Robert Friend Boyd '52 (law) and Sara Miller Boyd '55. The Wythe and Marshall Awards are intended to recognize exceptional character, leadership and selfless service to the Law School Community.

The Wythe Award is made to a member of the law school student body. The Marshall Award is made to a member of the faculty or staff of the Law School.

The Lawrence W. I'Anson Award

The Lawrence W. I'Anson Award is presented annually to a member of each graduating class who in the judgment of the Law School faculty has shown evidence of great promise through scholarship, character, and leadership. The award is given in honor of the late Lawrence W. I'Anson of Portsmouth, Virginia, former Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Virginia and first President of the Board of Directors of the National Center for State Courts.

Virginia Trial Lawyers Award

This award, given annually by the Virginia Trial Lawyers Association, recognizes a graduating student who has excelled in demonstrating the skills of trial advocacy.

Krucho and Fries Award

The generosity of the Baltimore-based firm Krucho and Fries, has made possible the annual recognition of a graduating student who has excelled in labor law and employment relations. The award is made upon the joint recommendation of faculty members who teach in this area of specialty.

Order of the Coif

The Order of the Coif is a national scholastic honor society in law. Its purpose is "To foster a spirit of careful study and to mark in a fitting manner those who have attained a high grade of scholarship" in the study of law. The English Order of the Coif was the most ancient and one of the most honored institutions of the common law. Its origins possibly antedated the Norman Conquest. The American Order of the Coif was founded in 1912. The Marshall-Wythe School of Law was granted a Charter in the Order of the Coif in 1981. Membership in the Order of the Coif is the highest academic honor a law student may achieve. It is equivalent to membership in Phi Beta Kappa for undergraduates, recognizing the scholastic achievement of students selected from the upper ten percent of their class.
