MARK YOUR CALENDAR

PROFESSOR PAUL RISHWORTH of the University of Auckland, New Zealand, will be in residence at the law school on Wednesday, March 14. He will be speaking at breakfast with students from 9:00-10:00 a.m. and at lunch with faculty from 12:00-1:00 p.m. Both programs will be in the Dean's Conference Room.

Professor Rishworth, a leading rights scholar in New Zealand, is currently collaborating on a book that will compare the New Zealand Bill of Rights Act with its American counterpart. He will speak about Chief Justice Marshall's legacy in New Zealand. As part of his discussion, Professor Rishworth plans to examine the influence of U.S. Indian laws from the Marshall era against Maori Rights in New Zealand, plus the role of judicial review of legislation in New Zealand.

Professor Rishworth's speech will offer a unique perspective of the possibilities and problems arising from implementing a Bill of Rights without a written constitution acting as the "superior law" of the nation. Send e-mail registration to IBRL@wm.edu if you would like to participate in either program.

THE LEGACY OF CHIEF JUSTICE JOHN MARSHALL. On March 16 and 17, the Institute of Bill of Rights Law will hold the final John Marshall Bicentennial Symposium which will focus specifically on the legacy of the Great Chief Justice. This symposium will open with a re-argument of Marshall's greatest case, Marbury v. Madison, and will proceed with three panels of distinguished constitutional law scholars who will consider the various ways in which Marshall shaped our structure of constitutional government. The proceeding of this symposium will be published in the William and Mary Law Review.

The moot court, presided over by circuit court judges, will begin on Friday, March 16, 1:00-2:30 p.m., followed at 2:45 p.m. by "The Legacy of Judicial Review." The panel discussions will continue on Saturday, March 17, 9:00-noon. The program will be held both days in the McGlothlin Courtroom.

3L'S – DON'T FORGET THIS DATE - Book store representatives will be accepting orders for caps, gowns and graduation announcements on Wednesday, March 21, in the Lobby from 12:00-4:30 p.m.

BAR INFORMATION - Specific bar information for all states and Puerto Rico is on reserve in the library. Virginia bar character forms are available on the handout shelves in the library. 3Ls planning to sit for the Virginia Bar, should block Wednesday, March 21, 3:30-4:30 p.m., room 120 on their calendars for a Virginia Bar information session regarding application and taking the exam.

3L GIFT KICK-OFF PARTY, Thursday, March 22, 4:00-7:00 p.m., Lobby and Patio.

ENVIRONMENTAL LAW & POLICY REVIEW SYMPOSIUM, Toxic Torts: Issues of Mass Litigation, Case Management, and Ethics, will be held on Friday-Saturday, March 23-24, 8:00 a.m.-5:00 p.m., room 120. This symposium seeks to explore current issues and developments in toxic tort litigation. Panelists include leading scholars in causation and ethics, as well as activists and practitioners who have been involved in a variety of toxic tort litigation, including recent litigation involving the tobacco industry. Fees: General admission $10, Students and faculty free. Friday panels will run from 8:30 a.m.-1:00 p.m. and 2:15-6:00 p.m. A reception will follow the afternoon panel. The Saturday panel (ethics) will run from 9:15 a.m.-1:00 p.m. For more information or to register for the Symposium, please call 757/221-3802.

EXAM CONFLICT FORMS are now available at the handout counter in the library. The deadline to file is Friday, March 30 to Gloria Todd.

The annual SPRING ADMITTED STUDENT DAY will be held on March 31. Marnie Jensen and Jen Redmond are coordinating overnight housing arrangements and student participation in the event. Student volunteers are needed. We appreciate your assistance in meeting and hosting visitors and sharing helpful information regarding the William & Mary experience. Contact Marnie or Jen if you would like to help. Drop a note in their hanging file or send an e-mail to: majens@wm.edu or jlredm@wm.edu.

2L Judicial Clerkship Applicants - Please keep us apprised of your judicial clerkship search status. Thanks!

DON'T FORGET TO CONTINUE TO CHECK the OCI+ Job Bank daily. We continue to receive listings from employers.

ILs & 2Ls - Summer Research Assistant Positions with Faculty Members - OCPP has surveyed professors about their hiring plans for summer 2001. A chart summarizing their needs and hiring procedures is posted outside OCPP.

Writing Competition Update - Throughout the academic year we receive announcements regarding essay competitions and invitations to submit papers for publication in law reviews and journals. This information is posted on the bulletin boards around the corner from OCPP. In addition to the intellectual and often economic benefits of these contests, the competitions are another way for you to demonstrate your legal writing abilities to employers. Because they are often sponsored by bar associations and other professional groups, they also provide excellent networking opportunities. Keep in mind that faculty members are a good source of ideas and guidance.

We have recently received notices regarding the following upcoming competitions:

- OOO The Berkeley Technology Law Journal competition seeks entries on internet law, multimedia law, patent law, biotechnology, chemistry, engineering, environmental law, computer software or genetics.
