1998 APPLICATION FOR ADMISSION

The 1998 application booklets have arrived! We are currently mailing these materials to thousands of prospective applicants. If you know of someone who may be interested in applying to the William and Mary School of Law, please stop by the Admission Office and obtain the application or leave their name and address so we may mail them our materials. Thank you for greeting visitors to the building and assisting as representatives of our program. The Admission Office would like to thank Meegan Burgank and Melinda Hough (Co-Chairs SBA Admission Committee) and Timika Adams (Chair SBA Minority Recruitment Committee) and the members of these committees for providing tours to our prospective applicants and assisting with recruitment and other related tasks this year. We appreciate the time and effort for this service to the Law School.

A handout outlining the numerous post-graduate fellowships is available in the Display Racks in OCPP. Pick one up today!

Pro Bono Students America (PBSA) - We are pleased to announce that William and Mary is now a member PBSA.

a national network of law schools working to foster law student community service. Because we are a PBSA member institution, you have access to information on thousands of school-year, summer, and entry-level positions with public interest and government employers nationwide. The PBSA World Wide Web database (www.pbsa.org), accessible via any computer on the William and Mary campus, enables you to perform customized searches based on your preferences. Detailed information on accessing the PBSA database and constructing searches is available on the display racks in OCPP.

Updated Public Interest Resource!!! We have recently received the new edition of Harvard's Public Interest Job Search Guide. It is shelved with the public interest resources (red/green dots).

Deadline Reminder for Early Decision Public Interest and Government Summer Funding for 2Ls. Funding through 5 programs (Bell, Prosecutor's, Public Service Fund, Virginia Law Foundation, and Williams) is available through an "early-decision" process. Applications are in the Applications File Cabinet in OCPP; fall application deadline is Monday, November 24 at 5:00 p.m.

2Ls - State Department Internship Program - The U.S. State Department sponsors a summer internship program. Applications for this program are available in OCPP. Deadline to apply for the summer is November 1, 1997.

2Ls & 3Ls - FBI Summer Honors Internship Program and Special Agent Hiring - The FBI intends to hire over 2000 Special Agents over the next 2 years. Information regarding the Special Agent application process is available in OCPP in the Direct Contact binders and in the Application File cabinet. The application process takes several months, so it is not too soon to send your initial application materials. Law graduates are especially appealing to the Bureau. The Bureau also sponsors a summers honors program for 2Ls--the deadline for this program is November

1. Information is in the Direct Contact Binders and the Application File Cabinet.

Platinum Plunger Rejection Letter Contest - OCPP announces the 12th Annual Platinum Plunger Rejection Letter Contest. Submit your most outrageous, humorous, revolting letters to Rita Schellenberg, Dean Kaplan or Dean Thrasher. Awards ceremony to be held in April.

Applying for a Government or Public Interest Summer Job? There is a one-page handout available on the display racks in OCPP that describes William and Mary's various Fellowship Programs for the summer of 1998. Please feel free to include the one page flier with your resumes and cover letters to government and public interest employers. In your cover letter, you may want to indicate that "William and Mary has numerous public interest (or government) summer job funding sources, as detailed on the enclosed sheet."

Planning on Practicing Law in Wisconsin? The State Bar of Wisconsin's Young Lawyer's Division invites you to join as associate members of the State Bar. Application information is file in the Application File Cabinet under "Wisconsin State Bar."
