SPECIAL REGISTRATION

We will have a special registration period on April 24th, 7:30a.m. to 11:30a.m. for all rising students. This will be an OPEN period, i.e., no registration order will be enforced. During this window, any rising law student may drop, add, or waitlist for courses. Students also may add into any new courses that may have been created since the initial registration period. Should seats be open in previously closed classes, Liz Jackson will offer wait-listers the opportunity to register with her from 7:30 – 11:30 a.m. ONLY. An invitation to add list will be posted in the lobby for those waitlisters for whom seats have opened. Though no registration order will be enforced, any hold on a student account WILL BE ENFORCED. Liz Jackson will not override the system on this day! In other words, clear your accounts.

New Fall Courses: Sports Law (3 credits) will be offered Mondays, 6:30p.m. - 9:00p.m. in room 127 with Prof. Silfen. Trademark Law (2 credits) will be offered Thursdays, 11:00a.m. - 12:50p.m., room 239 with Prof. Helfrich. Course descriptions will be posted prior to April 24th.

BAR APPLICATIONS

One final reminder that Virginia Bar Applications must be filed in Richmond no later than May 15. All students whose bar application requires an official transcript must attach a check for $5.00 to their request (some states have printed the transcript request on the school certification form, for other states a written request is to be made by the applicant to the school).

Attention: Like many states, the Virginia Bar now requires the MPRE as part of the application process. Applications for the MPRE are on the handout shelves in the Library. The next MPRE will be given August 14, 1998.

ORDER OF THE COIF

All are invited to attend the Order of the Coif induction ceremony, May 16, 1998, 5:00 p.m., Great Hall of the Wren Building. Inductees are requested to attend in business attire. Notification to

FROM OCPP

Rita, Rob, and Fred wish you a successful summer! We will be here throughout the summer to answer any questions you might have. Feel free to contact us via phone, e-mail, fax, or regular mail. Make sure you have provided Gloria with a summer address so that you will receive our mailing in late June/early July.

World Wide Web Sites of the Week - Visit www.pbsa.org from a William and Mary computer and have access to hundreds of pro bono lawyering opportunities throughout the country. And for you baseball fans, visit www.majorleaguebaseball.com for all you've ever wanted to know about baseball.

Attention 2Ls: OCPP has called the chambers of State Appellate judges (state courts of last resort and intermediate appellate courts) in DC, DE, MD, NC, PA and VA to determine which judges were still seeking clerks to begin in fall 1999. Many such clerkships remain open. Charts summarizing the results for those calls are posted on the OCPP Judicial Clerkship Board.

WE'RE STILL RECEIVING JOB LISTINGS FOR ALL STUDENTS! Remember to check the job postings outside OCPP. We will continue to post notices about summer positions throughout April and May and notices about entry-level positions through July.

Rising 2Ls & 3Ls - Information Regarding the Dauphin County (Harrisburg, PA) Bar Association Minority recruitment efforts, Southeastern Minority Job Fair, and Crimson & Brown Associates Minority Law Career Forum is available in OCPP. Deadline to submit registration materials is 5:00 p.m. on Tuesday, April 21. Please see Dean Thrasher for information regarding these programs.
