WILLIAM & MARY SCHOOL OF LAW

Congratulations Class of 2005!

Dear Class of 2005,

It seems only yesterday that I stood in the Law School's front hall on a Sunday afternoon in August 2003, welcoming you and handing out green & yellow bumper stickers emblazoned William & Mary: America's First Law School. It also seems only yesterday when the news came on another Sunday afternoon that your classmate Betsy John had died. Betsy was a vibrant presence during her brief time in our midst. The cherry tree planted in her memory is blooming outside the North Wing as I write this message.

You have been a "can do" class. To cite just a few examples among vast possibilities, Java City exists thanks to you. The SBA and PSF have done wonders. Your class was one of the driving forces behind our new Loan Repayment Assistance Program (LRAP). You've enriched the fabric of the community – for instance, Thanksgiving food drives, Toys for Tots, Red Cross blood drives, household/clothing collections for Avalon, the Iraqi school supply effort, the Head Start book drive, and campus bone marrow campaigns. The 34th running of the Spong Moot Court Tournament was an especially glittering iteration of this long running series. The Law Review ranked 20th this year amid the nation's teeming law journals, and it published six issues for the first year ever. The Trial Team came fully into its own in 2004/05, winning against all odds. BLSA gave the Law School a magnificent grandfather clock in memory of the fiftieth anniversary of Brown v. Board. The George Wythe Society provided photos for our walls of the eleven buildings where W&M law classes have been held over the centuries. I could go on and on, but you get the picture.

You've studied together, played together, and stuck together to an unusual degree, even in our collegial halls. And you have great timing – arriving after the North Wing was built, being on hand when the elegant Spong Classroom replaced the dog-eared room 119, getting away from here before the library construction becomes disruptive, and being 3Ls during the 225th year of the Law School's life.

During Opening Rites for your class in Phi Beta Kappa Hall thirty-two months ago, I mentioned that your relationship with the Law School would last for a relatively brief time on campus and then

ORDER OF THE COIF

The Order of the Coif is a national scholastic honor society in law. Its purpose is "to foster a spirit of careful study and to mark in a fitting manner those who have attained a high grade of scholarship" in the study of law. The English Order of the Coif was the most ancient and one of the most honored institutions of the common law. Its origins may antedate the Norman Conquest. The American Order of the Coif was founded in 1912. Membership in it is the highest academic honor a law student may achieve. It is equivalent to membership in Phi Beta Kappa for undergraduates, recognizing the scholastic achievement of students selected from the upper ten percent of their class.

AWARDS GIVEN AT GRADUATION

The Citizen Lawyer Award

This award honors a graduate or friend of the Law School who stands squarely in the Jeffersonian tradition of outstanding citizenship and leadership.

The Walter L. Williams Jr. Memorial Teaching Award

This annual award is named in honor of the late Professor Walter L. Williams Jr., who died in 1991. The winner is selected by the graduating class.

The Lawrence W. I'Anson Award

The Lawrence W. I'Anson Award is presented annually to a member of the graduating class who in the judgment of the Law School faculty has shown evidence of great professional promise through scholarship, character and leadership. The award, supported by an endowment given by the Beazley Foundation of Portsmouth, Virginia, honors the late Lawrence W. I'Anson, former Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Virginia and first President of the Board of Directors of the National Center for State Courts.

The George Wythe and John Marshall Awards

These awards have been made possible through the generosity of William & Mary graduates Robert Friend Boyd and Sara Miller Boyd. The Wythe and Marshall Awards recognize exceptional character, leadership and selfless service to the Law School community. The Wythe Award goes to a member of the law school student body and the Marshall Award to a member of the faculty or staff.

The Thurgood Marshall Award

Given annually by the William & Mary Law School Association, the Thurgood Marshall award goes to that member of the Marshall-Wythe community, whether student, faculty member, friend or alumnus, who best exhibits the ideals of distinguished public service exemplified by Justice Marshall.

Heidi Dakota Simon

Congratulations Heidi Dakota Simon, Esq.,

"You're the top!" You will travel many intriguing avenues using your legal education to pursue life after law school. May you attain all your goals.

Mom, Dad, Thor, HK, Elena, Hale

Diana Blake Points

Even youths grow tired and weary, and young men stumble and fall; but those who hope in the Lord will renew their strength. They will soar on wings like eagles; they will run and not grow weary, they will walk and not be faint.

The season, the time, the right to dream dreams, are for most but a passage, an entitlement of sorts. Wasted and lost age, not wisdom, triumphant wishes... languishing in the familiar are not the stuff of dreams or of this dreamer.

Mom and Dad

Michael Patrick Murphy

We are so proud of you and all you've accomplished through patient perseverance, hard work, God's guidance and your faithful wife Stacie. May God bless you both with great success in all of life.

Your loving family,
Dad, Mom, Maggie, Andrew,
Beth Anne, James and Kate

Kelly Gastley

Congratulations, Kelly! We are very proud of you and all you have accomplished. We wish you great success in your legal career.

Love, Mom and Dad

Benjamin Willoughby

Another great adventure begins! Ben—we are so proud of your effort and tenacity. Julie—thank you for your love and support of Ben. This accomplishment belongs to you both. We love you.

The Willoughby family

David Babad

Dave, we are so proud of you! To have come so far and achieved so much is a great accomplishment. You have found your true place in the cosmos. Welcome to the real world!

Love,
Mom, Dad & Jeff

Casey J. Hemmer

Independent, goal-minded, hard-working, diligent, loyal: traits that have served you well from a very young age. We are so very proud of you and all of your accomplishments. Know that we love you, support you and wish you much success. Col. 3:23-14.

Love, Mom & Dad

Stephen V. Durbin

Congratulations Steve—the best is yet to come!

Love—Mom, Norman, Alicia & Mike

Bradley Henderson

Congratulations, Brad, on a job well-done! You are an example of dedication to your family, and we are so happy to share this graduation with you. We love you!

Mom and Buzz

J. Carlos Alarcon

Love the life you have imagined! Congratulations, Carlos. We have always been very proud of you for being a loving and thoughtful person as well as for your successful academic achievements ever since you started at Chesapeake Academy. We wish you all the best in your career!

Love, Mom and Dad

Patricia Voyer

Tricia,
As you look ahead to a future full of promise and opportunity, our love and best wishes go with you and Trey. We are so proud of you. May every success be yours, and may all your dreams come true.

Love,
Mom, Dad, Mitchell, Kathryn, Hunter and Me-me

Kimberly L. Moore

The test of a person's strength of character is succeeding in spite of great adversity. You embody the soul and spirit of courage, perseverance, achievement, and the quiet competence of your father. Your graduation from Law School, and all it means, makes me very proud to be your mother.

—Love always, Mom.

In almost a century of living, I have had some proud moments, mostly connected to family, but this moment, my favorite granddaughter graduating from Law School, has special meaning for me. As a baby, I knew you were special, and as an adult, you continue to make me proud. Congratulations, Kimmy.

—Love, Mema

Congratulations to our favorite niece. We are so proud of what you have accomplished, and we wish you every good wish in the future. Good luck on the Bar Exam—no doubt you'll excel in that as you have in all others.

—Love, Uncle Mal and Aunt Jen

We have always anticipated your success and know that this is just the beginning. We are overwhelmed with pride at your achievement, as we know how difficult it has been. Most of all, we love you.

—Uncle Vince and Aunt Walda

Katherine Ann Aidala

Veni, vidi, vici!

Congratulations, Kate.

We are so proud of all you have achieved.

With love, Mom, Dad, and Dan.

Theodore Roger Lotchin

Asked to choose a quote to accompany his senior yearbook picture, Ted Lotchin selected Hemmingway: "...on a good day we had a splendid time and we never had a bad time." The sentiment here is descriptive of the way Ted has always met life—with enthusiasm, high expectations, and joy. We couldn't be prouder of our son!

Michael P. Kavanagh

From the day you were born you've enriched our lives immensely. We have loved every minute, every step, and every adventure. We are proud of who you are and all you have accomplished. We hope for you joy, peace and contentment, the best life has to offer.

Love,

Mom and Dad

Vanessa Mercurio Szajnoga

Dear Vanessa,

I have always loved you for your strong will, determination and perseverance. Today we celebrate a completion of another chapter of accomplishments in your life. You fill me with pride today, your graduation day, as you do every day. I love you.

Your husband, John

Dear Vanessa,

Every day we think of you in the warmest way. Today we are especially proud because at graduation we recall achievements and goals realized. We never doubted this day! We wish you every future success and remember to aim high, you can do well!

Love, Mom and Dad

Dear Vanessa: We are very proud to congratulate you on your achievements. You will be a credit to the legal profession and we wish you a successful career.

Love, Aunt Agnes and Uncle Emilio

Heidi Marthanna Brown

Joy! Joy!

Our hearts are filled with joy.

You are on the homeward trail to become an attorney.

You will face many challenges.

You have the knowledge and compassion to provide outstanding results in everything you do.

Always follow your dreams.

Love always, Mom and Dad

Marsha Janelle Lyons

Janelle, Congratulations!!! We are all very, very proud of you and your sustained efforts that made this significant accomplishment possible. We will all continue to love and support you in all your endeavors in the years ahead.

From: Mom, Dad, Randall, Granny Lyons & Granny Johnson

James Langan

Congratulations Jim! We are proud. Our love & best wishes. Mom, Dad, Maureen, Martha & Aunt Paula.

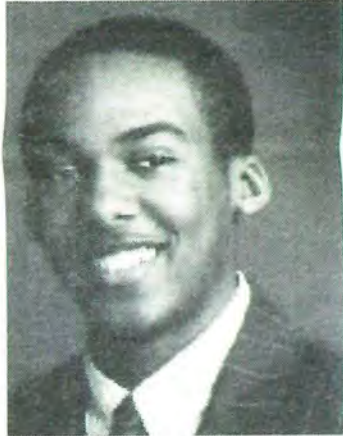

Carl Beattie

Carl, a decade ago you were shooting craps with Nathan Detroit; glad you're on the right side of the law now. Look at what you've accomplished on your own, the best way to do it. So what's next, President? Nobody gets past Karate Man.

Love, Mom & Dad

Adrienne Rachelle Mauney

Congratulations, Adrienne, you've always worked hard, created a plan of action and successfully executed it, and most importantly remained focused. We are proud of your accomplishments and wish you success in your legal career. You have become the woman we always knew you would be. Our love is forever yours. Mom and Dad

Robert Augustus Maylor Jr.

Congrats, Robert, on your achievements as you look forward to the next chapter of your life. Here are some thoughts to guide you:

We gave you life, but cannot live it for you.

We can teach you things, but we cannot make you learn.

We allowed you freedom, but we cannot account for it.

We took you to church, but we cannot make you believe.

We can tell you about lofty goals, but we can't achieve them for you.

We can pray for you, but we cannot make you walk with God. We can love you with unconditional love all our lives, and we will.

Dad, Mom & Ray

Michael Broadus

Michael, congratulations on your outstanding achievement. We are extremely proud of you and wish you continued success. We also want to extend well wishes from your grandparents, aunts, uncles, cousins and extended family members. Thanks for being the joy of our lives. Well done, son. Lovie & Norm Magruder

Capt. Troy David Hammon

Troy, words cannot begin to express the joy, pride and love we have for you. Congratulations on this momentous day.

III John 4 "I have no greater joy than to hear that my children are walking in the truth."

Love, Mom and Dad

Andrew Teel

Congratulations Andrew! We are so proud of you, and we wish you much success & even more happiness. Take your vitamins!

Love you,
Mom and Peter

Joshua Bardwell Freeman

Congratulations, Joshua!

"The harder the conflict, the more glorious the triumph. What we obtain too cheaply, we esteem too lightly; it is dearness only that gives everything its value."

—Thomas Paine

We miss you!

Mom & Dad

Maria Lynn Mullarkey Burakiewicz

Maria,

Your academic achievements, hard work and dedication over the past years reflect the intelligent, caring and considerate person that we adore and admire. We are so proud to share this milestone with you. We wish you health, happiness and success in your chosen career, as you aspire to reach your goals. Good luck at "Wiley, Rein and Fielding."

Congratulations with our Love Always,

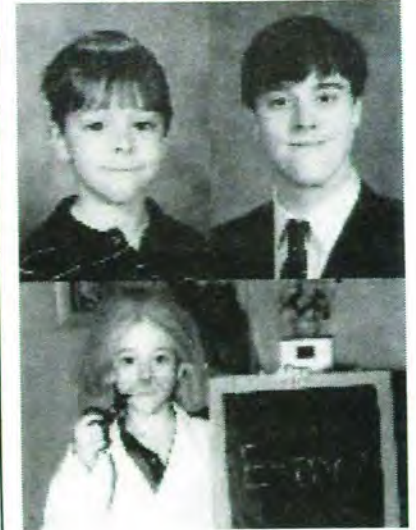

The "Mullarkey," "Hopkins" & "Burakiewicz" families

Caroline Fleming

You are my greatest joy and such a "stand out" in the crowd. Remember selling greeting cards for Captain Nemo and how "I'm just a great big baby" could get you anything. You dance so beautifully to your own tune. I'm so very proud of you. Dance on!! Momie and Mikey

Kathryn Wrieden

Congratulations on your achievement! You worked very hard, and we are so happy for you and proud of you too. Much Love, Mom, Dad & Greg

Joseph John MacAvoy

Your achievements have surpassed all our dreams. Earning an astrophysics degree from Princeton University and now a law degree and public policy degree from the College of William & Mary makes us truly proud parents.

Mom & Dad

James Robert Hoffman

You've accomplished every goal you have set. It has been amazing to watch the child you were become the man you are. However, despite your scholastic and career achievements, we are most proud of the son, husband, and father you have become. Mom, (Dad), Jen, Maria, & Christina

Sam Christopher Olive III

Happiness comes from the joy of achievement.
Congratulations and love always!

From: Mom, Dad, Mary Kay, Louie, Uncle Louie and Aunt Barbara

William K. Hamilton

Dear Billy, we're so proud of your successes, your skills & abilities, your hard work & accomplishments. But more important than these, we're proud of who you are—a truly special person & we feel very fortunate to have a son like you.

Love, Mom & Dad

Ryan G. Dolan

Ryan—Just look at you now! Never was there a doubt. We can't begin to tell you how proud of you we are—Congratulations! You have worked hard and earned this day. You are a great son & brother and an even better person. Look out Columbus!

Love, Dad, Mom & Whitney

Timothy W. Castor

Tim, Congratulations on your graduation from law school. We are very proud of all you have accomplished. Your hard work and desire to always do your best will take you far. May your career bring you much happiness, and your life surpass all of your dreams.

Love, Mom and Dad.

Michael D. Merolla

Mike—Congratulations—It's been a long and sometimes exhausting process but you have done it. We love and support you as always. May your life be a fulfillment of your dreams.

Love—Mom & Dad

Troy Oskar Foss

Our weekly trips to the library when you were a toddler have paid off. I am so proud of you.
Love, Mom

David Samuel Stern

David,
Life cannot be lived on ice 80' wide and 200' long. But if you continue as you have begun, knowing when to check and when to finesse and believing in miracles, you only need to remember to "skate where the puck is going."
Congratulations.
Love, Mom and Dad

Sarah R. Greene

Dear Sarah,
We knew early on you were going places! Best wishes as you embark on your new career.
Love, Mom, Dad, Phyllis, Martha & Zach

Elizabeth Ellen Bircher

We are extremely proud of you. You have overcome many obstacles along the way and you still remained a dedicated hard working student and a kind, generous, compassionate woman. You are all a parent could hope for in a daughter. Congratulations! We love you very much.
Mom & Dad

Kerry J. Eaton

You set a goal, with determination achieved
You there, support from afar, we always believed
You studied and were tested, with each score relieved
You stood the ground, be proud how much you achieved
Those in Nevada look forward your coming home.
Love, Mom, Dad, Grandma, Kreston, Kelly and Joe

James Peter Farrell

James, the applause is now all for you! Congratulations on reaching another milestone in your life, again you've made us all proud of you. We wish you luck with your future, but with your strong will, principles, and commitment, who needs luck?
Love you, Mom, Dad, Ry, Con, Matt.

Ian M. Ralby

Ian, along with law you've learned a lot about yourself, which is after all most important. Always remember what you're really here to do. We love you.
Mama, David, Aaron and Jimmy.

Elizabeth J. Peiffer

Elizabeth—We are very proud of your accomplishments, your hard work, your integrity, and your deep commitment to justice. Salus populi suprema est lex.
Mom, Dad, and Anna.

Jennifer L. Ketron

Dear Jennifer: Your academic success in law school, including your selection as Editor-in-Chief of the Law Review, have once again made us proud parents. The friendships you have forged with fellow students and faculty have molded memories that will last a lifetime. We wish you every success as you begin your legal career.

Love, Mom and Pop

Carl Douglas Neff

Carl, Congratulations as you graduate from law school! Always facing the present day with a smile and laughter while exploring future goals to achieve. "He who won't be counseled can't be helped." —Benjamin Franklin

Lovingly proud, Mom, Dad, Alex & Grandma Shirley

Sara Aliabadi

Dear Sara,
From kindergarten through law school, your "clarity of thought and firmness of purpose" served you well—congratulations! Remember this formula since the journey now begins. You will always be the love of our life, and we are so very proud of you.
Mom and Dad

Megan-Brady Viccellio

Be on notice: we intend to enforce the verbal contract you willingly entered into with us: to grow up and move in next door. Regardless of the fact that you were only 6 at the time. We have a handprint in clay. We love you, as you follow your heart.

Love, Dad & Mom

P.S. You were adopted from the Marsh Indians.

Love, the only Viccellio child, Katie.

Aaron Kass

Dear Aaron, Congratulations on a wonderful law school experience. Your dedication to excellence in whatever you undertake is exceeded only by your dedication to being the best person you can be. We are all proud of you. Your Mom, Dad, family and friends.

Richard Hadorn, Jr.

Rich, words cannot express the pride we feel for you and all your accomplishments. It's been a long road but one well traveled. Congratulations and best wishes. With love from all of the Hadorn and Cooke families and, most of all, from Mom and Jen.

Richard F. Farley

Congratulations Uncle Rich. Now you can protect us. Maarten, D, Huck, Riley, Trey, Ben, and Will (and your other relatives).
Drusilla F. Farley (Mother Farley)

1st Lieutenant Chris Brooks Nagel, III

You are noble, loyal, trustworthy, humble, have great strength of character, a man of honor with deep faith in God, brilliant in your thinking and gracious in your actions towards others. You are all things admirable. As a U.S. Marine JAG officer you are a warrior without peer—Semper Fi.

Love: Dad, Mom, Anthony, Amlyn & Lauren

Shannon West

You are our "American Idol." Simon says you have the "It Factor." Your greatest gift is making all God's children feel beautiful. Usually, people search for their own stars; your unconditional love encourages everyone to reach for the heavens. Our greatest gift from God is "YOU."

Love, Mom, Dad, Kelly, & Seamus

Scott Barbag

In celebration of your graduation, we wish you much success throughout the coming years. With our love, Mom, Dad, Lori, Eric, Eli and Abby.

Jon Christian Larson

Congratulations on your JD/MBA. We are proud of who you are and all you have accomplished. You are a wonderful son, brother, husband and new dad! "You're the Man."

We love you,
Your family

Marie Elizabeth Siesseger

There was a time, about two decades ago,
When we couldn't see how far you would go.
Then, high aspirations appeared in your eyes,
And we watched your accomplishments steadily rise.
Now you're graduating from the school of law,
And we couldn't be prouder of the path you saw.

Your parents

Kelly Elizabeth Street

Dear Kelly,
May God bless you with strength, wisdom, and courage. We are so very proud of you. Keep the following in mind: "God said, 'Your task: to build a better world.' I answered, 'How? This world is such a large, vast place, there's nothing I can do.' God said, 'Just build a better you.'"
(author unknown)

Love, Mom & Crystal

Jennifer Maki

Jen, your love of learning has always been there. I think it always will be. Just remember to put the book down every so often, and just go play. Breeze through that Bar, and then go play! You made it! I'm so proud!

Love, Mom

Hey Jen. Growing up in your wake has been like trying to hold on during a hurricane—not for the faint of heart! Thanks for always looking back to make sure I was following. Congratulations!
Love, Scott

Amanda Kutz

Amanda,
For all your hard work, effort and sacrifice, we want to say how proud we are of all of your accomplishments. We love you, and can't wait to see you graduate.

Love, Mom & Dad

Tarek Ziad Shuman

I've loved you through all the stages of your life. Now I love you as a man that I respect. You always said, "Mom, we'll get through this" when life was difficult. I admired your words of encouragement. May your future clients receive the same reassurance you have given me.
Kathleen McCabe (mother)

Brian Rosenau

In second grade, you wanted to be either a "dinosaur doctor" or a lawyer. Lawyer was obviously the right choice! Congratulations!
Love,
Mom, Dad & Greg

Emily Cromwell Meyer

Emily, all of your family wish you and Charlie many wonderful decades to come! We are all so proud of your accomplishments! Go out and do good (just like you always said you would).
Love, and God bless,
Your Family

Leasa Mariel Woods

I knew you were a special gift from the moment our eyes met. Soon others, your father, your brother, your grandparents, Godparents, our friends and relatives understood your greatness. And now many other people whose lives you've touched recognize how truly special you are indeed. You will undoubtedly leave your mark as you move forward in your career. On behalf of your family, I tell you that our hearts are full of joy and admiration.
We love you,
Mommy.

Cassiah Michelle Ward

Dear Cass,
With each step you take you make us proud to be a part of your life. Continue to hold your head high, do the right thing and follow your heart.
All our love,
Mom, Dad, Kaitlin and Anneka

Theodore Lu

It's hard to imagine that our little rascal will soon be an attorney. We are very proud of you Theo. You have worked very hard to accomplish your goal. We thank God for you. And we pray that you'll become a great lawyer.

Goodbyes From The Advocate Staff

The Advocate would like to thank its graduating editors and writers for their outstanding contributions. Pictured from left to right: Yuval Rubenstein, Marie Siesseger (news editor), David Zerby, and Margaret Riley.

Goodbye, Marie! Love, the Advocate Editors

Dear Marie,
Thank you for being my friend.
Godspeed,
Raj

Dear Marie,
I wish you all the best!
If your career is as good as your mango squares, you'll go far...
P.S. I need that recipe.
Cheers, Myriem

Thank you Marie for all your hard work this year! The Advocate would not have been such a success without YOU!
Ginna Kelly

Marie,
If the whole "law" thing doesn't work out (which, of course, it will because you are a superstar), I will be pleased to receive my movie-watching advice from your incredibly insightful reviews in Entertainment Weekly. By the way, you are my multitasking goddess.
Jen Rinker

You even got my Wesley Willis reference! In appreciation for all your hard work and help (and hipness), here's a haiku of my own to send you off:

Marie,
Your dedication to The Advocate
has been inspirational. What am
I going to do without you to pay attention to current events?
All the best,
Nicole

A Fond Farewell

Messages from the William & Mary Administration and Faculty

continue off campus for the rest of your lives. From now on, being a graduate of William & Mary Law School will be an important part of your identity. Please do stay in touch with your legal alma mater and with the friends you've made while here.

Each of you leaves with my very best wishes. All of us whom you leave behind will truly miss you!

Cordially,
Taylor Reveley

The Law Library staff congratulates the Class of 2005. We wish you good luck, good health, and much happiness. Remember that we are here to help, even after you leave our hallowed—and soon to be larger and much nicer—halls.

The Law Library Staff

The class of 2005 (and their parents and loved ones) should know what a great pleasure it is to have gotten to know you over the last three years—you're smart, focused, and ambitious. You're also nice, pretty funny sometimes, easy-to-work-with, and VERY multi-talented. It's easy to think of you only as Securities Regulation students, SBA leaders, Legal Skills TAs, Moot Court advocates, Bar Review stand-outs, or whatever, within our walls. But we know you are so much more than that—poets, world-travelers, and community volunteers. Tough competitors. Thoughtful peacemakers. Such interesting people, even without a law degree. So here's the bottom line—we will miss you!

Jayne W. Barnard

Your spirit, ambition, intelligence, and caring attitude will take you far. For those who were part of the Therapeutic Jurisprudence experience, remember our motto! To all of you that I have come to know, you have my sincerest best wishes for a healthy and happy future.

Professor Baker

The Legal Skills Program extends sincere appreciation to our graduating Junior Partners. You have made this a remarkable year with your talents, good humor and collegiality. Katie Aidala, Chris Barker, Caroline Fleming, Stacy Haney, Claire Maddox, John Mills, Mike Monahan, Maria Mullarkey Burakiewicz, Mark Ohrenberger, Elizabeth Peiffer, Kristina Rozek, Kimberly Smolenyak, Benjamin Willoughby.

YOU WILL BE MISSED!

Claire Maddox - we have been proud to be your partners. Thank you for your extraordinary efforts anticipating the needs of your students and your partners, diligently handling any work sent your way, always offering to lend a hand. Good luck as you embark on your new partnership track!

~ Jim and Patty

The Academic Support Program wishes to thank the graduating Teaching Assistants:

Rosa Evergreen, Davin Hall, James Langan, Marie Siesseger, Arista Sims, Kelly Street, and Hilary Weckstein.

Your energy and expertise have helped countless students!

As lawyers you will have power over your clients. As judges you will have power over both sides. As public officials you will have power over many people. As teachers you will have power over your students. You will have power over your children, and perhaps over your aging parents. Your use, or abuse, of these powers will define the content of your character.

Professor Eric Kades

Messages from the William & Mary Administration and Faculty

Remember, the court reporter's primary job is to preserve the record. Your primary job is to make the record.

Always speak up, enunciate clearly, give case cites, and provide word lists including cites. When the last words have been spoken, all that remains is the record.

Court reporters get the last word!

Diane M. Gray, RPR, CRR, CVR, Court Record Manager

However successful we may become, let us always remember that we are all just sisters and brothers in the Family of Man. My very best wishes to all of you.

George Helfrich

To the outstanding law graduates, May 2005: It has truly been my pleasure and privilege to have worked with so many of you over the past three years both in classes and with several other projects [law and literature, right to counsel project, jail education program]. You are a wonderfully caring and giving group who will make a real difference out there. We all wish you the best of luck as you join our profession.

Best regards,

Paul Marcus

Congratulations class of 2005!

We have enjoyed working with and getting to know you. You have promising futures.

We wish you personal fulfillment and professional success.

Thank you for all you have done to enrich the life of the law school, the College of William and Mary, and the community at large.

We will miss you!
