The Roberts Court after a Seismic Term: What comes next, whose influence is paramount, and will the fallout from the leak have lasting implications?

On Friday, September 16 at 5:30pm, the Supreme Court Preview will feature a panel titled "The Roberts Court after a Seismic Term: What comes next, whose influence is paramount, and will the fallout from the leak have lasting implications?" Last Term, journalists ran out of adjectives—landmark, sweeping, historic—to describe the decisions made in the 2021-22 Term. What comes next for the Roberts Court after a Term like that? Are we at the beginning of a new era or will the Justices (or some of the Justices) pump the brakes? And how will the fallout from the Dobbs leak or the 2022 midterm elections affect the answer to that question?
