William and Mary Law Review

VOLUME 42

No. 2, 2000

DEDICATION

We are proud to dedicate Volume 42 of the William and Mary Law Review to Ball Professor of Law John E. Donaldson, who will retire from teaching at the end of the 2000-2001 academic year. For thirty-five years Professor Donaldson has stood for that which is best at the William & Mary Law School. His energy, intelligence, and selfless commitment to the citizen-lawyer ideal, first championed by Thomas Jefferson and George Wythe, have won him admirers throughout the William & Mary community and beyond. As the following pages demonstrate, we are in excellent company as we offer Professor Donaldson our thanks and best wishes.
