A NOTE OF THANKS

The Environmental Law Group would like to acknowledge with thanks the support that Mr. Guy Coheleach has provided. Through donations of his limited-edition wildlife prints to William and Mary for resale, Mr. Coheleach has assured the continued operation of the Environmental Practice News for several more seasons, and has provided interested law students and alumni a rare opportunity to acquire fine wildlife prints that are no longer available elsewhere. That such artistic expertise is devoted, in part, to supporting the Environmental Law Group is a signal honor for Marshall-Wythe Law School and the College of William and Mary. The prints are available from the Environmental Law Group, and inquiries may be addressed to:

In our efforts to publish relevant material for our readers, EPN asks you, our readers, to send us information on those environmental cases and controversies in which you are involved. Many cases are never reported; but we hope that through this method, EPN can disseminate more current information to the readers.
