EVENING OFFERING

Objectives

To enable eligible members of the bar and the accounting profession to improve or refresh their tax knowledge. It is designed to help those who must work during the day in the legal and accounting professions to keep pace with rapidly changing tax laws. It is expected that two courses will be offered each semester; depending upon the response, courses will be rotated each year so that in a period of two years approximately 20 to 24 credit hours of different tax courses would be offered. An attorney who wishes to obtain the degree of Master of Laws and Taxation could complete the requirements in a period of two to four years depending on the number of courses taken each semester. Continuation of evening offerings in the tax program is, however, dependent upon satisfactory enrollment levels.

Admission and Degree Requirements

Certified public accountants having degrees from approved undergraduate institutions may enroll either as auditors or as unclassified post-baccalaureate students. Attorneys having degrees from approved law schools may enroll either as auditors or as provisional graduate students. Those enrolling as auditors will not take final examinations and will not receive grades. Those enrolled as unclassified post-baccalaureate students or as provisional graduate students will take final examinations and receive grades. Attorneys who complete more than eight credit hours of graded work with an overall average of B for all courses taken are eligible to apply for admission to the college program. If accepted as degree candidates the courses taken will be credited towards degree requirements. The requirements of the ML&T degree are more fully set forth in the Law School Bulletin. Degree requirements are subject to change by the Faculty. One of the requirements is the completion of eighteen credit hours of tax law courses, exclusive of Legal Accounting, and six hours of either tax law or related law courses with an overall quality point average of B (3.0 on a 4 point scale).

Students considering application to the degree program should obtain a complete description of eligibility and degree requirements from the office of the Dean.
