APPENDIX

MASTER OF LAW AND TAXATION

This program is premised upon a recognition of the practice of tax law as a profession in its own right, distinct from that of either the practice of law or accounting, and designed to train the student in the diverse fields necessary to the competent handling of all phases of tax matters.

ADMISSION TO THE GRADUATE PROGRAM

All law graduate candidates for admission to this program must have received a bachelor's degree and a first degree in law from approved colleges or universities, and have attained grades indicative of their ability to do graduate work in law.

DEGREE REQUIREMENTS

Candidates who have completed eighteen credit hours of tax law courses and six credit hours of elective tax law or related law courses with a quality point average of at least 2.0 (B), and who have been in residence in this Law School for at least one academic year (beyond the residency required for the professional law degree), will receive the degree of Master of Law and Taxation. Candidates who have completed some of the required tax law courses elsewhere may petition the tax faculty for substitution of electives of equivalent credit hours.

FINANCIAL AID

A limited number of scholarships are awarded on the basis of prior academic achievements and need. Additionally, financial aid (other than scholarships) in a limited number may be available. Special application must be made to be considered for these awards and aids.
