

O'BRYAN RECEIVES ALSA AWARD

Four Marshall-Wythe law students, Sam Tall Beale, Vincent Ewell, Alvin B. Marks, and D.W. O'Bryan attended the recent American Law Student Association Fourth Circuit Conference in Durham, North Carolina. The gathering was held April 7, 8, and 9, at which time Charles Houston of North Carolina College School of Law at Durham was elected Fourth Circuit National Vice-President to succeed Ewell.

Judge J. Braxton Craven of the Fourth Circuit Court of Appeals was the featured speaker at the conference.

Two of the nation's fourteen recipients of annual ALSA Silver Key Awards for Outstanding Service and Leadership were presented. One was bestowed upon Marshall-Wythe Student Bar Association President D. W. "Flub" O'Bryan, and the other was presented to Dwight Wheless of the University of North Carolina School of Law.

D.W. O'Bryan got a haircut on Wednesday April 5 at 1:00p.m. at the National Barber Shop, met a Mrs. Stone on Monday, April 10 at 11:00 a.m., embarked on a diet on Tuesday, April 11 at 8:00 a.m. and weighs 245 lb