The Inaugural Brigham-Kanner Property Rights Conference and Presentation of the Inaugural Brigham-Kanner Prize to Professor Frank I. Michelman
November 5 – 6, 2004

The William & Mary Property Rights Conference and William & Mary Property Rights Prize are named in recognition of Toby Prince Brigham, Esq., and Professor Gideon Kanner for their lifetime contributions to private property rights, their efforts to advance the constitutional protections thereof, and their accomplishments in preserving the protections and dignity of the individual and civil rights to private property. Mr. Brigham is an attorney who has specialized in eminent domain and property rights law for over 40 years and is a founding partner of Brigham Moore LLP in Florida. Professor Kanner is Professor of Law Emeritus at the Loyola Law School and is currently Of Counsel at Manatt, Phelps & Phillips LLP in California.

Professor Frank I. Michelman of Harvard Law School is the inaugural honoree, chosen in large measure for his influential article, “Property, Utility, and Fairness: Comments on the Ethical Foundations of ‘Just Compensation,’” 80 Har. L. Rev. 1165 (1967). Professor Michelman earned his B.A. at Yale and his LL.M. at Harvard. He is the Robert Walmsley University Professor at Harvard Law School where he has taught since 1963. He is the author of Brennan and Democracy (Princeton University Press 1999) and also has published numerous articles on property law and theory, constitutional law and theory, local government law and jurisprudence. He is a member of the Board of Directors of the U.S. Association of Constitutional Law and of the National Advisory Board of the American Constitution Society. In addition, he is a past president of the American Society for Political and Legal Philosophy and a fellow of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences.

In addition to commentary on the impact and continuing relevance of Professor Michelman’s work, the conference will include a discussion of recent developments in takings law and judicial comments on takings law, and a point/counterpoint on the sufficiency of current property rights protections.
