The St. George Tucker Lecture

The St. George Tucker Lecture Series was established in 1996 to recognize the scholarly achievements of a senior member of the William & Mary Law School faculty each year. The series has been made possible through the generosity of Law School alumni.
Peter A. Alces

Rollins Professor Peter A. Alces received his A.B. from Lafayette College (summa cum laude), and his J.D. from the University of Illinois (magna cum laude). Prior to joining the William & Mary faculty in 1991, he was the John S. Stone Faculty Fellow, University of Alabama School of Law. He also has been a visiting professor at Washington & Lee, Washington University, and Texas law schools.

He is the author of numerous books, including: The Law of Suretyship and Guaranty; Bankruptcy: Cases and Materials; Cases, Problems and Materials on Payment Systems; The Commercial Law of Intellectual Property; Sales, Leases and Bulk Transfers; The Law of Fraudulent Transactions; and Uniform Commercial Code Transactions Guide. He has also published articles in the Northwestern, Michigan, Minnesota, Illinois, North Carolina, Fordham, California, Texas, William and Mary Law, Ohio State and Georgetown law journals.

Professor Alces’s most recent publication, “Contract Reconcieved,” will be published in a 2001 issue of the Northwestern University Law Review.
