Woodbridge Named Dean of W&M Law
Woodbridge Named Dean
Of W&M Law

WILLIAMSBURG, Feb. 14-Dr. Dudley W. Woodbridge has been unanimously elected dean of the College of William and Mary Law School and chairman of the department of jurisprudence.

He had been recommended by President John E. Pomfret by the board of visitors as his successor to Dr. Willett}. This action was taken on recommendation of President John E. Pomfret by the board of visitors as his successor to Dr. Willett.

Dr. Woodbridge is chancellor professor of jurisprudence, and has been a member of the faculty since 1937. A graduate of the University of Illinois, he earned his doctorate of jurisprudence there in 1917. He is a member of the American Bar Association and the Virginia Bar Association, and has been elected to the Order of the Coif, Omicron Kappa, and the American Association of College Professors.

---