1955

Charter Observance Set
At William and Mary
Charter Observance Set

WILLIAMSBURG, Va., Nov. 3
Charter Day this year will be commemorated by a by the Rev. Thomas McMichael, pastor of the Method Church, in Williamsburg. The keynote address will be delivered by Dr. James W. Miller, chancellor of the College of William and Mary. The proceedings will begin at 11:30 A.M. in the College Convocation Hall. The Day will be observed with special interest in the Tercentenary anniversary of the College of William and Mary, and with a special program of music and recitation to commemorate the Tercentenary.

The College of William and Mary, founded by King William and Queen Mary, was chartered in 1693. The College will be observed with special interest in the Tercentenary anniversary of the College of William and Mary, and with a special program of music and recitation to commemorate the Tercentenary.

The program will include a special address by Dr. James W. Miller, chancellor of the College of William and Mary, and a special program of music and recitation to commemorate the Tercentenary anniversary of the College of William and Mary.

The program will include a special address by Dr. James W. Miller, chancellor of the College of William and Mary, and a special program of music and recitation to commemorate the Tercentenary anniversary of the College of William and Mary.

The program will include a special address by Dr. James W. Miller, chancellor of the College of William and Mary, and a special program of music and recitation to commemorate the Tercentenary anniversary of the College of William and Mary.