1962

Law Teacher is Honored By W&M

Repository Citation
https://scholarship.law.wm.edu/dwwoodbridge2/12

Copyright © 1962 by the authors. This article is brought to you by the William & Mary Law School Scholarship Repository.
https://scholarship.law.wm.edu/dwwoodbridge2
Law Teacher Is Honored By W&M

By W&M

Williamsburg, Sept. 27 - The Alumni of the William and Mary School of Law, in the College of William and Mary, honored a special representative here Tuesday afternoon.

College officials, friends and lawyers throughout the state gathered to honor Dr. Woodbridge. The ceremonies were held at the Alumni building across the street.

Dr. Woodbridge received as heads of the law school at the end of August after working on the campus for many years.

Honorary degree conferred.

The ceremonies honoring Dr. Woodbridge were a part of the annual re-awakening of the William and Mary College. The inaugration, the crowning of the new president in the Wren building in the 23rd century.

Society of Wythes

Justice Warren E. Burger, retired federal district judge, and former justice of the Supreme Court, was elected the new president of the organization of lawyers and judges. The group is named for the first lawyer to practice law in the state of Virginia.

The board of trustees said, "Dr. Woodbridge has rendered a service to the law and the state, and has been a leader in the state. His contributions to the law and to the state have been of great value."