Supreme Court Preview 2005

Friday, September 23, 2005: 6:00 PM – 9:15 PM
Saturday, September 24, 2005: 9:00 AM – 4:30 PM

The Institute marks the commencement of the new term of the United States Supreme Court each fall with its Supreme Court Preview conference. Now in its 18th year, the Supreme Court Preview brings together leading Supreme Court journalists, advocates and legal scholars for a day and a half to discuss and analyze the Court’s upcoming term. Included in your registration is a 500-page Notebook of conference materials. CLE credit pending.

On Friday, from 3 – 4 pm, join us for a discussion and book signing with Linda Greenhouse, author of Becoming Justice Blackmun: Harry Blackmun’s Supreme Court Journey.

What would be an ideal set of rules for assigning newborn children to parents? Participants in this conference will propose and defend statutory rules for state formation of legal parent-child relationships that they believe would serve children's welfare better than existing rules for maternity and paternity, bringing to bear on this issue social science research on the consequences for children of particular parental characteristics and circumstances.

SYMPOSIUM ON LAW AND MORALITY

Thursday, March 16, 2006: 4:00 PM – 6:00 PM
Friday, March 17, 2006: 9:00 AM – 4:00 PM
Saturday, March 18, 2006: 9:00 AM – 4:00 PM

Is Law measured by Morality? Or is Morality determined by Law? Is the relationship between Law and Morality static or dynamic? Fundamental questions such as these will be the focus of a two and one half day Conference on Law and Morality. Professor Michael S. Moore, of the University of Illinois College of Law, will open the Conference with introductory remarks on Thursday at 4:00 pm. On Friday and Saturday, a series of panels will consider Law and Morality in Contract, Tort, Property, Criminal, and Constitutional Law.

For two decades, the Institute of Bill of Rights Law at the William and Mary School of Law has sought to improve scholarly and popular understanding of our Bill of Rights.

The Institute of Bill of Rights Law carries out its mission in a variety of ways, including conferences on both scholarly and popular topics, parliamentary-style debates and public lectures, a prize-winning book series, a scholarly journal, and an endowed visiting professorship. The Institute also coordinates an extensive visitor program that brings many leading jurists, scholars, lawyers, and journalists to the William and Mary campus to discuss important issues that pertain to our Bill of Rights. The C-Span television network frequently broadcasts Institute programs and conferences to a national audience.
