THE COLLEGE OF
WILLIAM AND MARY
IN VIRGINIA

Marshall-Wythe School of Law
THE SUMMER SCHOOL OF LAW
IN ENGLAND
ITS ORIGIN AND PURPOSE

The College of William and Mary in Virginia has had significant relationships with England throughout its history. The College was chartered in 1693 by the reigning sovereigns, William and Mary, whose name it bears. The College’s first building was constructed in 1695 from plans attributed to the renowned English architect, Sir Christopher Wren, builder of St. Paul’s Cathedral in London. Through the efforts of Thomas Jefferson, an alumnus of the College, a chair of Law and Police was established December 4, 1779, thus making William and Mary the first to offer instruction in law in the United States.

In more recent years the College’s continuing relationship with England and its educational institutions has been evidenced by an active student and faculty exchange program, and by establishment of the Summer School of Law in England in 1967 on the campus of the University of Exeter in Devonshire.

Modern dormitories, dining hall, and the classrooms of Exeter’s campus, as well as the law library of the University, were made available. In addition, distinguished members of the faculty of the University’s School of Law agreed to teach some of the courses offered. The program has been further enriched by prominent speakers from the English Bench and Bar, as well as by a trip to “Legal London,” visits to the Inns of Court and to English courts when in session.

CURRICULUM AND CREDITS

The Summer Law School in England, as an extension of the Williamsburg campus, is fully accredited. The 1980 program will consist of one five-week term with 12 courses. Class meetings and duration of classes will be in accordance with the requirements of the American Bar Association and the Association of American Law Schools. Regular class attendance will be expected. A maximum course load is six semester hours. Residence credit will be given commensurate with the number of semester hours credit carried. The Marshall-Wythe School of Law will give the same credits as if the course were being offered on the Williamsburg campus. Law schools having students at previous sessions have approved the transfer of credits for the courses taken by their students. It is urged, however, that registrants clear this matter with their Dean's office at time of application to the program.

PROGRAM NOTES

The law faculty of the University of Exeter established in 1972 the Centre for European Legal Studies primarily to coordinate teaching, research and training of practicing lawyers in European Economic Community law. Its broader objectives are to develop a systematic study of civil law, comparative and international law. It offers advanced work leading to the LL.M. degree, and its general program is expected to be systematically co-ordinated with the work of the Summer School of Law. The University of Exeter School of Law has pioneered in this area, and its courses have attracted wide attention from members of the British Bar.

Among the faculty members selected for the annual summer school of law are specialists in such subjects as civil law, international public and private law, international business transactions, and comparative law. The opportunity to study these subjects from the perspective of English legal practice has proved particularly beneficial to American law students in the past.

One of the goals of the Summer School of Law in England is to provide an understanding of the common law system, in the mother country of the common law. In addition to basic course work in English legal history and the legal system, many of the American law courses in the same curriculum emphasize comparisons with English law.
Description of Courses

E10 European Community Law, General Principles (2)
LASOK & BRIDGE (Exeter)

Survey of the legal status of the European Community, sources of Community law, the council, commission, assembly and court of justice of the Community, implementation of Community law in member states of the Community, and enforcement of Community law. Consideration will also be given to the commercial law of the European Community.

E11 International Business Transactions (2)
PERROTT (Exeter)

E12 Introduction to Civil Law (2)
LASOK (Exeter)

A brief historical survey of the formation of West European Law from the Roman sources to the great Codes with a special reference to France; an analysis of the French Civil Code, French administrative law and some aspects of the French system (precedents, judges and lawyers).

E13 International Law (2)
BRIDGE (Exeter)

The nature and sources of international law; the relationship between international law and municipal law, the concept of statehood and recognition; the legal relationship between a state and its territory and acquisition of title to a territory; the territorial sea, contiguous zones, and continental shelf; the high seas, airspace and outer space; individuals as subjects of international law, nationality, aliens extradition and asylum; and the law of treaties.

E14 English Legal Systems and Legal History (2)
ENGLISH (Exeter)

E15 Immigration Law (2)
BUTLER (William and Mary)

A study of how the United States regulates the entry and presence of aliens in its boundaries and a comparison of the American system with the British system. Particular emphasis will be placed on the various preference classes, the grounds for exclusion and deportation, avenues of relief from deportation, and the procedural and substantive rights of aliens.

E16 Comparative Constitutional Law (2)
SWINDLER (William and Mary)

A comparative study of specific areas of American, English and French constitutional law: The legislative function in relation to an independent vs. a ministerial executive; executive and administrative processes; judicial control of public authorities; constitutional rights of individuals; current arguments for “devolution” (decentralization) and “entrenchment” (statutory provisions for a bill of rights).

E17 International Law of the Seas (2)
WILLIAMS (William and Mary)

A survey of the recent, dynamic developments in the international law of the seas. Special attention will be given to such major issues as the right of national control over territorial seas, contiguous zones, fishery and other resources zones, and the rights of states and private enterprises to exploit the mineral resources of the deep seabed.

E18 Trusts and Estates (4)
DONALDSON (William and Mary)

Consideration of the law relating to the formalities in the execution and revocation of wills; the nature of probate and administration proceedings; formalities in the creation of express trusts; resulting constructive and charitable trusts; rights and interests of beneficiaries; problems of trust administration; and a review of British origins of the law.

E19 International Law of the Environment (2)
WILLIAMS (William and Mary)

A survey of international law at the regional and global level pertaining to environmental protection, conservation and management. The course will give special attention to the world ocean environment and problems such as maritime pollution and conservation of living resources of the seas. However, other problems, such as international air and water pollution, protection of endangered animal and plant species, and conservation of migratory wildlife also will be examined.

E20 Employment Discrimination (2)
BUTLER (William and Mary)

A study of various discrimination problems arising in the employment relationship and of the legislative and judicial responses to those problems. Specific areas of the law to be discussed include Title VII, the Equal Pay Act, Executive Order 11246, Title IX, and the Constitution.

E21 Legal Clerking (1)
LASOK (Exeter)

A limited number of legal clerking positions with British lawyers are available on a first come, first served basis. Specific information will be furnished upon registration.
LIVING FACILITIES

Within brief walking distance of the Law School building is the Lafrowda residential complex used by the Summer School of Law in England. The Lafrowda complex is a recently constructed residence facility for single men and women and for married students and their families.

All rooms are single rooms. Couples are furnished two rooms, one to be used as a bedroom and the other as a living room. Families with children are furnished three or more rooms.

Each floor has kitchen and bathroom facilities used in common by residents. Linens and daily maid service are supplied. Coin operated washers and dryers are in the Lafrowda complex and dry cleaning facilities are within walking distance.

Meals are served cafeteria style. Room and board cannot be paid separately.

Tennis courts, a swimming pool, a student pub, a game room (modest fee for use of equipment), a television room, and a large student lounge are provided for the students' use. Students from England and from other countries also are on campus at Exeter during the summer.

A limited number of off-campus housing facilities are available. Though within walking distance of the University, they are modest by American standards but are low priced. Students must make arrangements for off-campus housing by corresponding directly with individual landlords. A list of off-campus housing is furnished registering students.
CULTURAL ACTIVITIES

Exeter is an attractive and ancient cathedral city only 12 miles from the beaches of the South Devon coast. The Cathedral is a superb example of the Decorated Gothic Style (1280-1370), with Norman transept towers unique in England. The Guildhall dates from the Middle Ages having been rebuilt in 1330. Pubs, including one frequented by Charles Dickens, and inns abound. Excellent theater and music programs are available also.

In Exeter, in Devonshire, and in the surrounding counties of Southwest England are many historic sites within short distances that date from Roman times (200 AD) through the Middle Ages, the Norman Conquest and the Elizabethan era.

Day trips by bus at reasonable rates are available to Dartmouth, Dartmoor, and other interesting sites in Devon. Weekend trips are also available to Penzance (Cornwall’s principal town), Bath, Tintagel Castle (believed to be King Arthur’s castle), St. Ives, and Stonehenge. Direct, fast train service to London is available several times daily.

TRANSPORTATION

Applicants should make their own travel arrangements. A savings of up to 50% of first class airfare can be obtained through charter flights or discount plans. Consult your local travel agent and airlines since advance reservations, sometimes up to 65 days, may be required.
SCHEDULE OF COURSES

*Right to occupy begins noon Sunday, July 6, 1980 and ends noon Tuesday, August 12, 1980. Travel arrangements should be made accordingly.

With exception of two weekdays for the trip to "Legal London," board includes three meals Monday through Thursday, breakfast and lunch on Friday, and dinner on Sunday. Other meals may be purchased separately.
SCHOLARSHIPS

Five full tuition scholarships and five partial tuition scholarships in the amount of $250 each will be awarded solely on the basis of academic performance. To be eligible for consideration for scholarship assistance, an applicant must submit an application for admission to the program, the required registration fee, and the following information:

a. An applicant who will enter law school in the Fall of 1980 must provide a copy of his college transcript, a copy of his LSAT Report showing his college Grade Point Average and a copy of his notice of admission to an ABA-approved law school.

b. An applicant who currently is a first-year law student must provide a copy of his college transcript, a copy of his LSAT Report showing his college Grade Point Average, a transcript of any law school grades received based on a 4.0 scale, and a letter of good standing from the dean of his law school.

c. All other applicants must provide a transcript of all law school grades received based on a 4.0 scale, a statement of class standing if available, and a letter of good standing from the dean of his law school.

DEADLINES FOR APPLICANTS

February 15, 1980 - Last date for submitting applications and required supporting documents for those seeking tuition scholarships. The forms on the last two pages of this brochure should be used.

March 15, 1980 - Last date for submitting applications for those not seeking tuition scholarships. Because of the limited enrollment, however, it is recommended that applications be filed well in advance of this date, since, in fairness, qualified applicants will be accepted in the order their applications are received. The forms on the last two pages of this brochure should be used.

March 31, 1980 - Payment of $588 for room and board. This payment is refundable subject to penalty depending on date of cancellation.

April 30, 1980 - Full payment of tuition. Tuition is refundable thereafter only if applicant is unable to attend for verified reasons of illness or military service obligation.
