2014 Special Issue:
Twenty Years of Feminism

Introduction
Linda Jackson ................................................................. 1

A Travesty of Justice: Revisiting Harris v. McRae
Jill E. Adams & Jessica Arons ........................................... 5

Women in the Crowd of Corporate Directors:
Following, Walking Alone, and Meaningfully Contributing
Joan MacLeod Heminway .............................................. 59

Feminist Legal Theory as a Way to Explain the Lack of Progress of Women’s Rights in Afghanistan:
The Need for a State Strength Approach
Isaac Kfir ................................................................. 87

Mail Order Feminism
Marcia Zug ................................................................. 153

Notes

Procedurally Criminal: How Peremptory Challenges Create Unfair and Unrepresentative Single-Gender Juries
Chelsea V. King ............................................................... 187

Suicide in the Name of Honor: Why and How U.S. Asylum Law Should Be Modified to Allow Greater Acceptance of Honor-Violence Victims to Prevent “Honor Suicides”
Ayla M. Kremen ............................................................ 213