1833

For the U. S. Telegraph

N. Beverley Tucker
WASHINGTON CITY.

THURSDAY, MARCH 8, 1841.

STATE REPORTS—INDIANA—OHIO.

We call the attention of our readers to the state reports of Indiana and Ohio. The report of Indiana is especially interesting, as it contains a full and complete account of the proceedings of the General Assembly, and the state of the department of education. The report of Ohio is equally instructive, and contains a详细 of the proceedings of the General Assembly, and the state of the department of education.

WASHINGTON CITY.

THURSDAY, MARCH 8, 1841.

STATE REPORTS—INDIANA—OHIO.

We call the attention of our readers to the state reports of Indiana and Ohio. The report of Indiana is especially interesting, as it contains a full and complete account of the proceedings of the General Assembly, and the state of the department of education. The report of Ohio is equally instructive, and contains a detailed account of the proceedings of the General Assembly, and the state of the department of education.

WASHINGTON CITY.

THURSDAY, MARCH 8, 1841.

STATE REPORTS—INDIANA—OHIO.

We call the attention of our readers to the state reports of Indiana and Ohio. The report of Indiana is especially interesting, as it contains a full and complete account of the proceedings of the General Assembly, and the state of the department of education. The report of Ohio is equally instructive, and contains a detailed account of the proceedings of the General Assembly, and the state of the department of education.

WASHINGTON CITY.

THURSDAY, MARCH 8, 1841.

STATE REPORTS—INDIANA—OHIO.

We call the attention of our readers to the state reports of Indiana and Ohio. The report of Indiana is especially interesting, as it contains a full and complete account of the proceedings of the General Assembly, and the state of the department of education. The report of Ohio is equally instructive, and contains a detailed account of the proceedings of the General Assembly, and the state of the department of education.